

THE SECRETARY OF THE NAVY
WASHINGTON DC 20350-1000

From: Secretary of the Navy
To: Presidents, FY-23 Active-Duty Navy Lieutenant Commander Staff Corps Officers Promotion Selection Boards

Subj: ORDER CONVENING THE FY-23 PROMOTION SELECTION BOARDS TO CONSIDER STAFF CORPS OFFICERS ON THE ACTIVE-DUTY LIST OF THE NAVY FOR PERMANENT PROMOTION TO THE GRADE OF LIEUTENANT COMMANDER

Ref: (a) FY-23 Active-Duty Navy and Reserve Officer and Chief Warrant Officer Promotion Selection Board Precept

Encl: (1) Board Membership
(2) Recorders and Assistant Recorders
(3) Administrative Support Staff
(4) Statutory and Regulatory Promotion Objectives

1. Date and Location

a. The promotion selection boards, consisting of you as presidents, the officers listed in enclosure (1) as members, the officers listed in enclosure (2) as recorders and assistant recorders, and the personnel listed in enclosure (3) as administrative support staff, are ordered to convene at the Navy Personnel Command, Millington, TN, at 0800, May 2, 2022, or as soon as practicable thereafter.

b. The boards shall proceed in accordance with all guidance in this letter, the FY-23 Active-Duty Navy and Reserve Officer and Chief Warrant Officer Promotion Selection Board Precept, reference (a), and the Statutory and Regulatory Promotion Objectives, enclosure (4).

2. Promotion Board Authorized Selections

a. The total number of officers who may be recommended in each competitive category shall be the number that most closely approximates the percentage set forth below of in-zone eligible officers determined as of the date the boards convene. The Chief of Naval Personnel shall determine the number of in-zone eligible officers on the convening date, calculate the number that may be recommended for promotion under the percentages set forth in the FY-23 Active-Duty Navy Officer Promotion Plan, and furnish the number to the boards.

Subj: ORDER CONVENING THE FY-23 PROMOTION SELECTION BOARDS TO
CONSIDER STAFF CORPS OFFICERS ON THE ACTIVE-DUTY LIST OF
THE NAVY FOR PERMANENT PROMOTION TO THE GRADE OF
LIEUTENANT COMMANDER

b. If the computation results in a fraction of a number of 0.5 or greater, that fraction is rounded up to the nearest whole number unless that rounded number is itself greater than 95% of the in-zone eligible officers, in which case the fraction is rounded down to the nearest whole number. If the computation results in a fraction of a number less than 0.5, that fraction is rounded down to the nearest whole number. The boards may recommend up to the number provided by the Chief of Naval Personnel.

COMPETITIVE CATEGORY	PERCENT TO SELECT
Medical Corps	95
Dental Corps	89
Medical Service Corps	90
Judge Advocate General's Corps	95
Nurse Corps	75
Supply Corps	94
Chaplain Corps	80
Civil Engineer Corps	75
Limited Duty Officer (Staff)	66

3. Equal Consideration of Officers "In Zone" and "Above Zone".

As detailed above, the number of in-zone eligible officers is used only to calculate the total number of selects authorized. There are no individual zone selection limitations or expectations. Accordingly, in determining which officers are best and fully qualified for promotion, you are required to equally consider both above-zone and in-zone officers.

4. Consideration of Officers "Below-Zone". The boards shall identify exceptional officers from below-zone and consider selecting them for promotion to the grade of lieutenant commander. The boards must ensure that these exceptional below-zone candidates are fully considered for promotion if they meet the best and fully qualified standard. A number not to exceed 10 percent of the total selections authorized for each grade and competitive category may be selected from below-zone unless the number calculated is less than 1, in which case the number that may be selected from below-zone is 1.

5. Best and Fully Qualified Selection Standard

a. Fully Qualified. All officers recommended for promotion must be fully qualified; that is, each officer recommended must be capable of performing the duties of the next higher pay

Subj: ORDER CONVENING THE FY-23 PROMOTION SELECTION BOARDS TO
CONSIDER STAFF CORPS OFFICERS ON THE ACTIVE-DUTY LIST OF
THE NAVY FOR PERMANENT PROMOTION TO THE GRADE OF
LIEUTENANT COMMANDER

grade. Officers who do not meet that standard shall not be recommended for promotion. In this era of strategic competition, the Navy needs officers and leaders who are both skilled operators and skilled thinkers who have been exposed to an increasingly complex web of networks, people, and concepts. Our leaders must be evaluated for development of increasing talents in support of operational employment of naval capabilities, understanding of strategic competition, and exposure to the people, concepts, and educational experiences (including technology) to become transformational in the organization.

(1) Officers fully qualified for promotion demonstrate an appropriate level of both competence, as evidenced by a commitment to operational excellence and continual performance improvement, and character, as evidenced by the presence of the four core attributes of integrity, accountability, initiative, and toughness. Additionally, officers fully qualified for promotion adhere to Navy and Department of Defense (DoD) ethical standards, are physically fit, and demonstrate loyalty to the Navy core values.

(2) The Navy is composed of men and women representing dozens of different ethnic groups and hundreds of cultural heritages. Fully qualified officers must be capable of leading personnel from widely varying backgrounds and mentoring a diverse workforce while executing the Navy's strategic diversity initiatives. The Navy's ability to meet this leadership challenge depends, in part, on having leaders who reflect our very best, including performance, professional experience, and education. This capability is demonstrated by an officer's willingness and ability to be open to the diversity of ideas, experiences, and backgrounds of others. Conversely, factors which demonstrate a lack of this ability include, but are not limited to: substantiated equal opportunity / equal employment opportunity complaints and/or any substantiated finding of hazing, hostile work environment, or maltreatment.

b. Best Qualified. Among the fully qualified officers, you must recommend for promotion the best qualified officers within their respective competitive category. Proven and sustained superior performance in command or other leadership positions in difficult and challenging assignments is a definitive measure of fitness for promotion. Furthermore, successful performance and leadership in combat conditions demonstrate exceptional promotion potential and should be given special consideration.

Each board member shall apply this guidance when deliberating and voting. Additionally, members will use the considerations below to guide their determination of the best qualified officers.

c. Skill Requirements. The Navy must focus on the skills mandated by current needs and on developing the professional competencies required in our future leadership. The Navy and joint force leadership need to comprise a diverse blend of male and female officers who have excelled in both traditional and specialized career paths. Give due consideration to demonstrated performance and expertise in the competency/skill listed in order of significance below. For amplifying information, refer to the competency/skill information,

d. Additional Considerations. The following are additional considerations in determining the best qualified officers:

(1) Competence. In addition to proven and sustained superior performance in command or other leadership positions, competence also includes the following attributes:

(a) Commitment to Operational Excellence. Because Mission One for every officer is the operational readiness of our Navy, the best qualified officers will demonstrate an unrelenting commitment to operational excellence. This commitment will be evidenced by mastery of the skills critical to naval warfare. The Navy values service and superior performance on operational fleet and subordinate command staffs.

(b) Continual Performance Improvement. This attribute includes the use of data-driven insights and a clear embrace of a "perform to plan" mindset. It also includes evidence of instilling a culture of learning behavior in peers and subordinates and an openness to meaningful feedback.

(c) Education and Professional Development

i. In line with the Secretary of the Navy Memorandum "Continuous Learning for Naval Officers" dated 26 August 2021, the board shall give favorable consideration to those officers with relevant graduate education, experience in specialized areas, and Navy Professional Military Education and Joint Professional Military Education (JPME). In May 2018, the Unrestricted Line (URL) instituted a board selection process for in-residence graduate education programs. That board selection process ensures that URL officers with superior performance records are afforded the opportunity for in-residence graduate education. Cultivation of our best and brightest officers through in-residence learning enhances critical thinking skills with a direct correlation to enhanced warfighting expertise. Beginning with officers in year group 2015, in-residence graduate education will be required prior to assuming major command. In determining officers who are best and fully qualified for promotion, the board should give favorable consideration to officers who have obtained relevant graduate degrees while in-residence. Degrees earned through Department of the Navy funded Low-residency Graduate Education Programs (LGEP) fulfill the in-residence graduate education requirement.

CONSIDER STAFF CORPS OFFICERS ON THE ACTIVE-DUTY LIST OF
THE NAVY FOR PERMANENT PROMOTION TO THE GRADE OF
LIEUTENANT COMMANDER

ii. The Navy values completion of graduate education and development of a subspecialty. Degrees from the Naval Postgraduate School, the Naval War College or equivalent Service institutions, and civilian education programs that result in assignment of a subspecialty code or award of Additional Qualification Designation (AQD) codes are desirable. Proven expertise from an experience tour utilizing that subspecialty in necessary tours is both valued and fundamental to development of Navy leaders.

iii. The Navy values competitive scholarships and fellowships, examples of which include: Olmsted Scholar, Marshall Scholar, Rhodes Scholar, White House Fellowship, Secretary of Defense (SecDef) Corporate Fellowship, Tours with Industry, Fleet Scholars Education Program, and Federal Executive Fellowships (e.g., politico-military and cyber).

iv. Best qualified officers seek opportunities to broaden their cultural awareness through experiences and education and to enable better communication in a global operating environment.

v. The Navy values the importance of Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps (NROTC), Officer Training Command (OTC), Recruit Training Command (RTC), and U.S. Naval Academy (USNA) duties in building and developing future Navy leaders. When reviewing an officer's qualifications for the next higher grade, you should give favorable consideration to NROTC/OTC/RTC/USNA assignments.

(d) Individual Augmentee (IA)/Global Support Assignment (GSA)/Overseas Contingency Operations (OCO)/Irregular Warfare/ Afghanistan-Pakistan Hands (APH) Program Assignment

i. The board may give favorable consideration to those officers who have displayed superior performance while serving in IA/GSA/OCO/APH assignments in direct support of OCO, Irregular Warfare, and the National Defense Strategy and, in particular, those IA/GSA/OCO/APH assignments that are extraordinarily arduous or which involve significantly heightened personal risk. These individuals are developing valuable combat and nation-building skills under stressful conditions. Such assignments may not be typical of the

CONSIDER STAFF CORPS OFFICERS ON THE ACTIVE-DUTY LIST OF
THE NAVY FOR PERMANENT PROMOTION TO THE GRADE OF
LIEUTENANT COMMANDER

officer's traditional community career path, and the officer may be rated by a reporting senior unfamiliar with the officer's specialty and the Navy fitness report system.

ii. IA/GSA/OCO assignments may take an officer out of the normal community career path for periods up to one and a half years. APH assignments consist of extensive specialized training and multiple, non-standard deployments that may take an officer out of the normal community career path for periods of up to three and a half years.

iii. Note that CHC officers are noncombatants. Chaplains do not have the same IA/GSA/OCO/APH assignment opportunities as other communities. However, chaplains develop combat experience through support of warfighters in operational environments within the Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard. The board may give favorable consideration to those CHC officers who have displayed sustained superior performance in operational assignments to include Navy fleet; Fleet Marine Force (FMF); Coast Guard sectors, districts, or regions; and IA/GSA/OCO/APH assignments.

(e) Encourages both compliance and creativity. We must encourage every officer to think creatively, develop new ideas, take prudent risks, and maximize capabilities through sound management practices. In the context of a changing Navy, officers demonstrating innovative thinking, efficient management skills, prudent risk taking, and effective business practices, may reflect a variety of backgrounds.

(2) Character. In addition to competence, the best qualified officers will demonstrate the following attributes of character:

(a) Possesses and openly demonstrates the four core attributes. The challenges facing our Navy are growing in scope, scale, and pace. To meet these challenges, the Navy needs male and female leaders who have demonstrated estimable character and are prepared for decentralized operations. You should give careful consideration to officers who demonstrate the four core attributes that guide our decisions and actions: integrity, accountability, initiative, and toughness. Integrity may be demonstrated as an individual or as a team member by displaying conduct that is upright, honorable, and by working to strengthen the resolve of his or her peers, superiors, and

CONSIDER STAFF CORPS OFFICERS ON THE ACTIVE-DUTY LIST OF
THE NAVY FOR PERMANENT PROMOTION TO THE GRADE OF
LIEUTENANT COMMANDER

subordinates. Accountability may be demonstrated by achieving and maintaining high standards, honestly assessing progress, and adjusting as required. Officers demonstrate initiative by taking ownership, acting to the limit of their authorities, and looking at new ideas with an open mind. Toughness can mean marshalling all sources of strength and resilience, including rigorous training; encouraging the fighting spirit of our people; and providing steadfast support of our families. Officers who demonstrate these core attributes ensure the Navy remains the world's finest navy and deserve your careful consideration when selecting officers who are best and fully qualified.

(b) Embodies and encourages a culture of excellence, including the 10 Signature Behaviors of the 21st Century Sailor. You should give careful consideration to officers who demonstrate the following behaviors:

- i. Treats every person with respect.
- ii. Takes responsibility for his or her actions.
- iii. Holds others accountable for their actions.
- iv. Intervenes when necessary.
- v. Leads and encourages leadership in others.
- vi. Grows personally and professionally every day.
- vii. Embraces the diversity of ideas, experiences, and backgrounds of individuals.
- viii. Upholds the highest degree of integrity in professional and personal life.
- ix. Exercises discipline in his or her conduct and performance.
- x. Contributes to team success through actions and attitudes.

Subj: ORDER CONVENING THE FY-23 PROMOTION SELECTION BOARDS TO
CONSIDER STAFF CORPS OFFICERS ON THE ACTIVE-DUTY LIST OF
THE NAVY FOR PERMANENT PROMOTION TO THE GRADE OF
LIEUTENANT COMMANDER

(c) Demonstrates a commitment to personal and professional growth. You should give careful consideration to officers who broadly embrace a "perform to plan" mindset; use data-driven insights; master the skills critical to naval warfare; and are open to meaningful feedback from seniors, peers, and subordinates alike.

(d) Facilitates connections in self and others. You should give careful consideration to officers who lead with humility and consistently and sustainably inspire their teams to perform at their best. This trait includes active mentorship of those within and outside of their immediate command and/or community and active advocacy for those whom they mentor. It also includes a demonstrated commitment to expansion of competence and continual strengthening of character.

(e) Is loyal to and behaves consistently with the Navy's core values. You should give careful consideration to officers who actively pursue what is right and behave consistently with the Navy's core values. While we do not embrace a zero-defect officer corps, the best qualified officers will demonstrate consistency between the Navy's core values and their on- and off-duty behavior.

(3) Championing a Culture of Excellence

(a) The board may give favorable consideration to those officers who, as part of the CNO's Culture of Excellence initiative, qualified as Human Factors Analysts (AQD 286). These "Cultural Champions" have completed the Human Factors Process and Primary Prevention extended training and are thereby qualified as train-the-trainers tasked with equipping Command Resilience Teams with the skillset to identify vulnerabilities (e.g., preconditions for unsafe acts, supervisory factors, and organizational influences) and provide tools that narrow the gaps in Navy policies, programs, practices, and processes.

(b) Fundamental to a Culture of Excellence, Cultural Champions are charged with fostering a sense of inclusiveness, empowerment, and support throughout every command. Only upon completion of extensive training are they certified as experts in Human Factors and Primary Prevention efforts and awarded the Human Factor Analysis AQD.

LIEUTENANT COMMANDER

(4) Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID 19) Stop Movements.

Due to COVID-19 and the resultant stop movement, Fitness Report summary groups were altered beyond the Reporting Senior's control and in conflict with his or her intent. Officers receiving Fitness Reports where a Reporting Senior indicated COVID-19 impacted the end result should not be viewed adversely and the COVID-19 impact must be taken in context when viewed with the totality of the record. The board must take extra care to not disadvantage members for their inability to transfer as a result of the stop movement.

(5) Indo-Pacific Area Expertise Considerations

(a) As indicated in the National Defense Strategy, China is leveraging military modernization and predatory economics to coerce neighboring countries to reorder the Indo-Pacific region to their advantage. As China continues to seek economic and military ascendance, it will continue to pursue a military modernization program that tries to displace the United States to achieve global preeminence in the future.

(b) Recognizing this challenge to U.S. national security interests, special consideration shall be given to officers who have excelled in their knowledge of the political-military affairs and U.S. strategic interests in the Indo-Pacific region.

(6) Joint Officer Considerations

(a) Our ability to operate effectively with the other Services is vital to our war-fighting capability. To foster this ability, a number of officers are assigned to joint duty with the Joint Staff, the other Services, and joint organizations. To ensure our ability to conduct joint operations, the Navy is firmly committed to placing as many officers as possible in joint duty assignment billets.

(b) Success in these assignments should be given special consideration, and the statutory joint promotion objectives, delineated in enclosure (4), represent critical requirements that warrant particular consideration when determining which officers are best qualified for promotion. However, these statutory joint promotion objectives do not alter the best and fully qualified selection standard. As such,

Subj: ORDER CONVENING THE FY-23 PROMOTION SELECTION BOARDS TO
CONSIDER STAFF CORPS OFFICERS ON THE ACTIVE-DUTY LIST OF
THE NAVY FOR PERMANENT PROMOTION TO THE GRADE OF
LIEUTENANT COMMANDER

members shall only select eligible officers who are best and fully qualified for promotion, even if doing so will result in a failure to meet the statutory joint promotion objectives.

(c) This guidance does not apply to boards for competitive categories in which there are no joint officers eligible for consideration.

(7) Acquisition Workforce Considerations. Acquisition Workforce officers possess the qualifications to manage the development, acquisition, and life cycle support of the Navy's current and future platforms and associated systems. The URL, Aerospace Engineering Duty Officers, and Engineering Duty Officer communities all contain Acquisition Workforce officers. In addition, contracting skills are based in the Supply Corps and Civil Engineer Corps. While there are specific needs and backgrounds in each community, there are overarching acquisition skill sets which are valued and found in all of these communities. Officers who possess these skills, regardless of the community to which they belong, are valued and necessary for the health of the Acquisition Workforce, and should be considered in the broad context of the Acquisition Workforce. Examples of these overarching skill sets include technical and operational knowledge of weapons and major weapons systems (e.g., ships and aircraft), Command, Control, Communications, Computers, and Intelligence (C4I), combat systems, unmanned systems, systems engineering, enterprise information systems, and information technology (IT). In determining the best and fully qualified officers for promotion, you shall give equal consideration to outstanding performance whether in an acquisition or non-acquisition position.

6. Equal Opportunity and Diversity Guidance

a. Diversity is the strength of Our Nation. The Navy benefits when we capitalize on the diverse experience, perspective, innovative spirit, background, and ideas in our ranks. Diversity is not founded on statistics, percentages, or quotas. Diversity is about achieving peak performance. Our Navy should draw upon the entire possible set of talents and backgrounds to maximize our warfighting capability, innovate to address new threats and challenges, and take advantage of emergent opportunities.

Subj: ORDER CONVENING THE FY-23 PROMOTION SELECTION BOARDS TO
CONSIDER STAFF CORPS OFFICERS ON THE ACTIVE-DUTY LIST OF
THE NAVY FOR PERMANENT PROMOTION TO THE GRADE OF
LIEUTENANT COMMANDER

b. The Department of the Navy is dedicated to equality of treatment and opportunity for all personnel without regard to race, religion, color, sex (including pregnancy), gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, or national origin. Discrimination on any of these bases is contrary to the Department's core values of honor, courage, and commitment. The Navy strives to maintain a professional working environment in which an individual's race, religion, color, sex (including pregnancy), gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, or national origin will not limit his or her professional opportunities. Accordingly, within this board's charter to determine the officers who are "best and fully qualified," or "fully qualified," as applicable, you must ensure that officers of every race, religion, color, sex (including pregnancy), gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, and national origin are given fair and equitable consideration.

c. Your evaluation of all officers must be fair and equitable. You should be particularly vigilant in your evaluation of records to take care that no officer's promotion opportunity is disadvantaged by service utilization policies or practices. You should evaluate each officer's potential to assume the responsibilities of the next higher grade, including his or her ability to successfully lead a diverse organization, the overriding factor being performance of assigned duties.

d. Impermissible Considerations. Promotion boards are prohibited from considering the following:

(1) The marital status, civilian employment, religion, or volunteer service of an officer;

(2) Any information regarding an officer's spouse, including, but not limited to, civilian or military employment, education, race, religion, color, sex (including pregnancy), gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, national origin, and volunteer service;

(3) An officer's previous decision to opt out of a promotion selection board; and

(4) An officer's previous participation in the Career Intermission Program.

Subj: ORDER CONVENING THE FY-23 PROMOTION SELECTION BOARDS TO

THE NAVY FOR PERMANENT PROMOTION TO THE GRADE OF
LIEUTENANT COMMANDER

e. The Navy has assigned some officers outside of traditional career development patterns, e.g., institutional instructors, diversity officers, recruiting, and equal opportunity billets. These assignments, though greatly beneficial to the Navy, may have foreclosed to the officers so assigned opportunities available to other officers. In addition, other utilization policies or practices, such as those based on statutory restrictions on the assignment of women, may have had an effect on career opportunities. Such assignment practices should not prejudice the selection of these men and women for promotion; to do so may deny the Navy the diversity of talent, background, and experience we should seek and which is necessary for sustained success in our changing world. Successful performance of duties assigned is the key in measuring an officer's potential for promotion; duty performed well by men and women affected by such utilization policies or practices should be given weight equal to duty performed well by an officer not affected by such policies or practices.

f. This guidance shall not be interpreted as requiring or permitting preferential treatment of any officer or group of officers on the grounds of race, religion, color, sex (including pregnancy), gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, or national origin.

7. Medical Community Considerations. Navy Medicine needs exemplary leaders able to thrive and inspire/deliver results, especially in complex and challenging times. Knowledge and proven performance/experience in a variety of settings including operational medicine, joint medical operations, and current garrison health care and fleet/FMF support is necessary. Future leaders must understand and have experience across the continuum of care that is Navy Medicine. Additionally, Navy Medicine greatly values joint experience and formal education, including JPME with knowledge and experience in a variety of settings including joint medical operations and current garrison health care delivery and operational support initiatives. Duty or service in combined or other staff positions at senior levels of government should also be considered favorably.

a. The Navy requires officers of exceptionally high professional, operational, clinical, and business competence with the intellectual capacity to think analytically and express themselves articulately. They must have the energy to create and communicate the organization's vision, as well as build and

CONSIDER STAFF CORPS OFFICERS ON THE ACTIVE-DUTY LIST OF
THE NAVY FOR PERMANENT PROMOTION TO THE GRADE OF
LIEUTENANT COMMANDER

motivate teams to accomplish that vision. Our leaders must be calculated risk-takers, inclusive in decision-making, and trusted by subordinates. They must have the courage to stand on principles and demonstrate a clear potential to lead the Navy of the future. They must recognize talent and mentor, coach, and develop juniors, then build the environment in which subordinates can thrive. They must understand and use best clinical practices and business tools in managing the health and readiness of our operating forces to ensure they are healthy and on the job. Our Medical Community's leadership must be drawn from those officers who clearly understand Navy Medicine's obligation to support the fleet and Marine Corps and demonstrate the capacity to meet the challenges of our commitment to maritime superiority.

b. You must ensure that Navy Medicine's future leaders possess the broad knowledge necessary to support the operating forces and are acknowledged leaders within their operational, clinical, scientific, and other specialties. Likewise, officers selected must have demonstrated exceptional managerial skill and professional competence in executive and staff roles in the Fleet, Marine Corps, or shore establishment. In determining those officers best qualified for promotion, you should select those officers who have served in a broad spectrum of assignments requiring expertise in diverse functional areas. You shall give consideration to an officer's academic, clinical and/or scientific proficiency as a health professional to at least as great an extent as you give to that officer's administrative and management skills. Strong consideration should be given to board certification when a board certification exists for the specialty, provided they have had sufficient time to meet the requirements. It should be noted that, although there is no set career path for upward mobility, those you select will be placed almost assuredly in positions that require broad military and medical perspectives beyond the Department of the Navy. When officers serve in operational and/or joint environments where they are often among a small or "1-of-1" peer group, or where reporting seniors may be unfamiliar with the medical department career paths and/or the Navy fitness reports system, special attention must be taken in reviewing those officers' records. Excellence in operational support settings should receive special consideration as Navy Medicine shifts greater focus to readiness and operational support. For operationally-focused specialties, consideration should be made for those officers who have demonstrated

CONSIDER STAFF CORPS OFFICERS ON THE ACTIVE-DUTY LIST OF
THE NAVY FOR PERMANENT PROMOTION TO THE GRADE OF
LIEUTENANT COMMANDER

consistent superior performance and operational commitment. Special consideration should be given to those officers who have demonstrated the ability to move seamlessly across domains.

c. The Navy values completion of graduate education and development within an officer's subspecialty. For officers currently in or who have successfully completed a Duty Under Instruction (DUINS) program (to include residencies and fellowships), the board shall give consideration to at least as great an extent as the board gives consideration to an officer's administrative and management skills, as these officers were competitively selected by Navy Medicine for these valued programs. The Navy has invested significantly in superior officers selected for DUINS and other educational opportunities. Special attention should be given to those officers who, while in these educational programs, may not have had the opportunity for peer comparison on fitness reports. That should not be considered adverse or detrimental.

d. Officers best and fully qualified for promotion to commander and below in Navy Medicine are those who have demonstrated tactical mastery of their specialty and demonstrated superior leadership in the clinical, scientific, academic, and/or operational settings. Best and fully qualified officers for the rank of commander and below will be those who have demonstrated superior sustained performance in jobs that demonstrate increasing responsibility, scope and complexity across the spectrum of military medicine, especially inclusive of operational platforms.

8. Judge Advocate General's (JAG) Corps Community

Considerations. The JAG Corps enhances the readiness and capabilities of the Navy and joint force through legal work and advice provided by well-trained and experienced judge advocates. This includes advice to commanders at sea and ashore, service to individual clients, military justice, and staff-based policy and legal work that keeps the Navy on a solid legal foundation. To deliver legal services in a fleet-focused and client-focused manner, the JAG Corps benefits from drawing on the talents of officers with a more generalist career path and on the talents of officers with deeper expertise in specific areas of practice. Judge advocate duty assignments are made in the best interest of the Navy. In determining the best and fully qualified officers,

CONSIDER STAFF CORPS OFFICERS ON THE ACTIVE-DUTY LIST OF
THE NAVY FOR PERMANENT PROMOTION TO THE GRADE OF
LIEUTENANT COMMANDER

equal weight shall be given to equivalent levels of individual performance and team contribution in all assigned billets, based on guidance provided in the precept and convening order.

a. Assignment to Office of Military Commissions (OMC). On May 14, 2008, Deputy SecDef wrote that "military commissions are a national priority. Conducting a fair, just, and transparent military commissions process is the Department's top legal services priority and necessitates our commitment to dedicate the right number of and most skilled legal practitioners the Department has to offer." The JAG Corps has met this commitment to provide skilled legal practitioners to OMC by detailing officers from every JAG Corps practice area. The JAG Corps must continue to value the important contributions of skilled legal practitioners at OMC.

b. Military Justice Litigation Career Track. Since 2007, the JAG Corps has maintained a separate career track for active-duty officers who specialize in prosecuting, defending, and judging criminal cases. After competitive selection by an administrative board, these officers are required to spend the majority of their careers in litigation-related billets. The board is instructed to value litigation experience when selecting the best qualified officers.

c. Post-Graduate Education. Give equal weight to post-graduate education obtained at military and civilian institutions.

d. Navy Reserve Officers Recalled to Active-Duty. A recalled officer's record shall not be discounted simply because it contains fewer active-duty fitness reports than a peer's record.

e. Law Education Program. The Law Education Program (LEP) enhances the JAG Corps' fleet-focus and connection to the Navy and Joint Force. Based in statute, the LEP is an accession source for a limited number of competitively selected officers from other designators who bring valuable experience and perspectives from the fleet. Selected officers receive Navy-funded orders to study law for up to three years, which is a substantial investment. Records of officers accessed via the LEP may reflect little time as a judge advocate and considerable time as an officer of another designator and as a student with non-observed fitness reports. The Board shall give equal weight

CONSIDER STAFF CORPS OFFICERS ON THE ACTIVE-DUTY LIST OF
THE NAVY FOR PERMANENT PROMOTION TO THE GRADE OF
LIEUTENANT COMMANDER

to equivalent levels of individual performance and team contribution by LEP officers in their previous designators and during law school as the board gives to performance by officers from other accession sources in judge advocate billets. In so doing, the board shall give full consideration to the substantial investment made by the Navy in educating these officers.

f. For merit reorder, officers should be afforded consideration, regardless of assigned duties, for particularly impactful performance based upon the precept, convening order, and these principles:

(1) Actions that advance the Secretary of Defense's priorities: defend the nation; take care of our people; and succeed through teamwork.

(2) In light of the Secretary of the Navy's statutory duties to organize, train, and equip the Navy, actions that advance the four priorities set forth in the Chief of Naval Operations Navigation Plan: Readiness; Capabilities; Capacity; and Sailors. These priorities are furthered by actions that include:

(a) Ensuring a Navy that is ready to win in competition, crisis, and contingency operations.

(b) Using experimentation, exercises, and wargames to determine what is needed, and training together to achieve integrated combat power.

(c) Facilitating a world-class Navy through recruitment, education, training, retention, or empowering Sailors and Navy families.

9. Supply Corps (SC) Community Considerations. The Navy requires SC professionals who possess a solid understanding of the interconnectivity of acquisition, supply chain and logistics with Fleet and Joint Force operations. Navy demands SC personnel possess a broad perspective with the ability to understand, dissect, integrate and communicate Navy's supply chains end-to-end. Supply chains span from the tactical edge aboard afloat and expeditionary units, through the operational level of war where naval units deploy and operate and across our force generation foundry reaching deep into the defense

Subj: ORDER CONVENING THE FY-23 PROMOTION SELECTION BOARDS TO
CONSIDER STAFF CORPS OFFICERS ON THE ACTIVE-DUTY LIST OF
THE NAVY FOR PERMANENT PROMOTION TO THE GRADE OF
LIEUTENANT COMMANDER

industrial base. SC officers recommended for promotion must have uncompromising integrity combined with technical, professional and operational proficiency achieved through a balance of fleet, shore, overseas and policy tours. Education of our SC is a strategic imperative in order to understand the challenges of operating in a competitive maritime environment to enhance capability and generate fleet lethality. Above all, SC personnel are expected to leverage their knowledge, diversity of thought and experience in order to build strong inclusive teams to ensure the expeditious delivery of logistics and supply chain solutions for the Fleet and Joint Force. Sustained superior performance in leadership billets of increasing responsibility and complexity is most valued.

a. The SC requires officers who are honest, trusted and accountable for success and failure. Aggressive officers with a strong fiduciary responsibility for personnel, material and fiscal resources are highly valued.

b. Officers who have a successful track record of high-impact and measurable mission results, with sustained superior performance, in two operational tours demonstrate the potential to lead as a lieutenant commander.

c. At least one operational tour should be in an afloat unit, and SC Warfare Qualification must be attained. Successful completion and superior performance in a department head tour at-sea is highly valued.

d. When considering top performing officers for merit reorder they must have completed two operational tours. Favorable consideration should be given to those officers with superior performance in a department head tour afloat.

10. Chaplain Corps (CHC) Community Considerations

a. The CHC exists to support Sailors, Marines, Coast Guardsmen, and their families, in the exercise of their religious freedom. The opportunity to practice their faith wherever they serve has the benefit of increasing their personal resilience. CHC officers should excel in Professional Naval Chaplaincy (PNC), delivering the core capabilities of providing religious ministry to those of their own faith, facilitating for those of other faith traditions, caring for all personnel, and delivering relevant advice to commanders. Success and sustained exceptional performance at a level commensurate with or above their rank in these areas are important attributes to consider. The chaplains selected for promotion should be leaders of integrity who have demonstrated proficiency in personnel and project management, operational planning and execution, mastery of administrative processes, and commitment to the professional development of themselves, their subordinates, and the CHC. You must ensure that Navy CHC's future leaders possess the broad knowledge necessary to support the operating forces and are acknowledged leaders, demonstrated by their exceptional leadership ability, professional competence, and executive/staff roles in support of operational and shore assignments.

b. Career Paths. Because chaplains serve in the Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, and Joint environments, there is no standard or expected career path. The CHC values initiative as indicated by the successful completion of arduous assignments, milestone billets, and IA/GSA/OCO/APH opportunities, and, in the case of RC chaplains, mobilizations. Chaplains demonstrate their professional development by mastering core competencies rather than by accumulating experiences associated with any particular sequence of billets. In determining those officers best qualified for promotion, you should consider favorably those officers who have demonstrated sustained superior performance as indicated by evidence of excellence in the following twelve competencies:

- (1) Communication
- (2) Decision Making
- (3) Leadership
- (4) Strategic Planning
- (5) Community Principles
- (6) Quality Improvement
- (7) Stewardship and Managing Resources
- (8) Administration
- (9) Problem Solving

(10) Service Focus

(11) Teamwork

(12) Managing People

c. Additional Education, Training, and Professional Development. The CHC values education, training, and professional development. All CHC officers enter service with at least one master's degree.

(1) Advanced Education. Officers who have participated in advanced education beneficial to the Navy (e.g., Navy-funded, personal expense, etc.) after entering service that leads to another master's degree, post-graduate certification, or doctorate degree should be given favorable consideration. Schooling associated with non-observed time should not be viewed as detrimental to promotion potential.

(2) Subspecialty requirements. Officers who have successfully applied subspecialty expertise in a follow-on tour (Religious and Culture, Pastoral Counseling, and Ethics) should be given favorable consideration.

(3) CHC Communities of Interest. Officers who have been appointed to lead a CHC COI should be given favorable consideration.

(4) FMF Qualification Designator. All chaplains do not have the opportunity to complete an FMF tour, but if they do then favorable consideration may be given to those assigned to FMF tours who have been awarded the FMF Qualification Designator (AQD: 55F).

d. Fitness Reports. Take special care when reviewing fitness reports written by officers of the Marine Corps, Coast Guard, Merchant Marines, or commanders in joint environments where reporting seniors may be unfamiliar with the Navy fitness reports system.

e. Navy Reserve Officers Recalled to Active-Duty. The CHC Community is a mix of direct accessions and indefinite recalls. Navy Reserve officers who have been recalled to active duty will have fewer active-duty fitness reports than their continuous active-duty peers. Due consideration shall be given to the fitness reports available and the quality of performance reflected in the record. A recalled officer's record shall not be discounted simply because it contains fewer active-duty fitness reports than an active-duty peer's record.

f. Demonstrated competency in cooperative ministry and in facilitation are prerequisites for selection to lieutenant commander. Officers who have a successful track record of accountability and sustained superior performance in diverse or arduous assignments demonstrate the potential to succeed at the level of lieutenant commander. It is strongly encouraged that at least one of these tours be operational (afloat or FMF), and at least one of these tours be with a Navy unit.

g. For merit reorder, the chaplain should demonstrate sustained superior performance with an increasing scope of responsibilities in leadership, supervision, and/or staff assignments; fully functioning at lieutenant commander level; indicators of PNC mastery at commander level.

11. Civil Engineer Corps (CEC) Community Considerations

a. As the Navy's shore installation and expeditionary engineers, senior CEC officers are expected to display sustained superior performance in the three CEC core competencies, including Facilities Management and Acquisition; Seabees, Naval Construction Force Units, or other expeditionary units; and, Navy/Marine Corps/Joint Staff. Integral to this performance, officers must possess exceptional people, teamwork, and leadership skills to work in linear and matrix organizations with uniformed, civil service, and industry personnel at all echelons of command and levels of government.

b. As Navy leaders, senior CEC officers are expected to take actions to improve inclusion and retention of a diverse workforce within the CEC Community and Seabees. Leadership actions include coaching, mentoring, and sponsoring subordinates. Leaders also advocate the use of professional development opportunities provided by the Navy such as Career Development Symposium, Tours with Industry, and Career Intermission Program.

c. Although there is no singular career path for upward progression, all officers under consideration for promotion must exhibit continued increase in job responsibility and job diversity commensurate with their rank. Experiences in overseas contingency, humanitarian assistance/disaster response, and theater security cooperation program operations are valued.

Assignments with an operational unit or as an individual augmentee should be considered equally.

d. While all CEC officers recommended for promotion must be the best qualified within their respective promotion categories, the Navy requires CEC Community leaders with exceptionally high professional engineer and business competence.

e. Officers in the CEC Community are eligible for, and generally granted, a scientific waiver for the JQO designation requirement for flag officer promotion. However, JPME and joint experience are valued.

f. A limited number of CEC billets support NAVSPECWAR, Ocean Facilities Program, COCOM staffs, instructor duty, and other unique requirements. Officers selected to perform these sensitive duties are extensively screened and complete demanding proficiency training and may have multiple-tour operational assignments that can preclude them from serving in traditional CEC career path billets. Due consideration should be given to outstanding performance by members in these assignments with the understanding that limited details of their activities may be provided in an unclassified "not observed" or "1 of 1" fitness report, given the sensitive and unique nature of their duties.

g. For merit reorder consideration, valued achievements for all paygrades:

(1) Successfully and continuously served in assignments normally filled by the next higher paygrade, or "Acting" in a similar billet, for more than six months.

(2) Top recognized performer in all assignments.

(3) Successful performance in multiple overseas, arduous, or operational/Individual Augment assignments.

(4) Leadership actions to improve inclusion and diversity within the CEC and Seabees.

(5) ACQ/PW qualification or certification in advance of requirement by grade.

(6) Other technical qualifications or certifications
(e.g., PMP, CEM, LEED, etc).

h. All fully qualified CEC lieutenant commanders should have experience in facilities management, acquisition (construction management and/or contracting), and expeditionary assignments.

i. A fully qualified officer's minimum qualifications include: registered as Engineer-in-Training (ADQ: 950), if the officer is pursuing Professional Engineer licensure; completion of at least one Architecture Registration Exam (ADQ: 953); or, completion of the Architecture Experience Program hours (AQD: 954), if the officer is pursuing Registered Architect licensure, and Public Works Qualification Level 1 or above (AQD: 9P1, 9P2, 9P3).

j. Valuable achievements above the minimum requirements include: registered as a Professional Engineer (AQD: 951); Registered Architect (AQD: 952); Acquisition Level I or above (AQD: AC1, AC2, AC3); Public Works Qualification Level 2 or above (ADQ: 9P2, 9P3) and, Seabee Combat Warfare qualification (AQD: 960) or other warfare qualification, if a lateral transfer to the community. JPME and other technical/professional certifications are highly valued.

k. For merit reorder consideration, valued achievements prior to Lieutenant Commander:

(1) Achieved professional qualification (PE or RA). Architects who have completed the Intern Architect Development Program shall have their RA.

(2) Completion of JPME Phase I.

12. Active Component Limited Duty Officer (LDO) Staff

Considerations. LDO Officer Summary Groups (OSG) changed 1 October 2017 to prepare for FY-21 selection boards. Preparations included aligning the LDO CEC Staff designator (6530) in the General Line/Staff summary group as announced in NAVADMIN 157/17. SECNAVINST 1400.1C dated 5 April 2019 prohibited the category change resulting in the CEC becoming a standalone designator. FY-23 is year three of promotion within competitive categories. Careful consideration must be given to summary groups where 6530s may have been compared to other LDO designators, which they will not compete against for promotion. Consideration for promotion remains fully qualified officers who have demonstrated outstanding leadership and professional acumen commensurate with the opportunities provided in their designator career path. Best qualified officers will have completed Command qualification, will be top performers and will have consistently excelled at leading in operationally challenging environments and staff assignments throughout their career.

13. Recommendation for Reorder of Officers of Particular Merit

a. After the board has determined all best and fully qualified officers who should be recommended for promotion, it shall proceed to determine whether any of the recommended officers are of particular merit to be placed higher on the promotion list than their lineal number would place them. The officers recommended for merit-based reordering are, in the opinion of the majority of the members of the board, to be placed higher on the promotion list and in the order recommended; or, no officers are recommended for merit-based reordering, in the opinion of the majority of the members of the board.

b. A number not to exceed 15 percent of the total selections authorized for each grade and competitive category may be placed higher on the promotion list unless the number calculated is less than 1, in which case the number that may be placed higher on the promotion list is 1. The board may determine that no officers should be placed higher on the promotion list than their lineal number would place them.

c. Officers of particular merit are those officers whose records contain documented performance consistently superior to the performance of other officers recommended for promotion by this board.

d. No officer recommended for promotion shall be moved down on the promotion list except by insertion of the name of an officer of particular merit above that officer's name.

e. If the board recommends officers of particular merit be placed higher on the promotion list, then the board shall recommend the order in which those officers should be placed on the list.

Statutory and Regulatory Promotion Objectives

PROMOTION SELECTION BOARDS

(These objectives DO NOT alter the best and fully qualified selection standard discussed in the convening order.)

1. Statutory Joint Objectives. For officers assigned to joint duty within the best and fully qualified standard, the board shall strive to ensure that the following statutory promotion objectives are achieved:

a. Officers who are serving, or have served, on the Joint Staff (JS) are expected, as a group, to be promoted to the next higher grade at a rate not less than the rate for officers in the same grade and competitive category who are serving on, or have served on, Navy Headquarters staff; and,

JS Rate \geq HQ Rate of Selection

b. Officers in the grades of lieutenant commander or above who have been designated as a joint qualified officer (JQO) are expected, as a group, to be promoted to the next higher grade at a rate not less than the rate for all officers in the same grade and competitive category.

JQO Rate \geq Overall Selection Rate for Category

2. Statutory Acquisition Workforce Objective. In accordance with 10 U.S.C. § 1731, Acquisition Workforce (AW) officers are expected, as a group, to be promoted at a rate not less than the rate for all line (or the equivalent) officers (both in-zone and below-zone) in the same grade.

AW Rate \geq All Line (or Equivalent) Rate (IZ & BZ)

3. Regulatory Objective. Although not contained in statute, the Secretary of Defense has established an additional promotion objective as a matter of policy. Officers who are serving, or have served since their last promotion board, on the staff of the Secretary of Defense are expected, as a group, to be promoted to the next higher grade at a rate not less than the rate for all officers in the same grade and competitive category who are serving, or who have served since their last promotion board, on the Navy Headquarters staff.

OSD Rate \geq HQ Rate of Selection

4. Prior to adjournment, the board must review the extent to which the statutory and regulatory promotion objectives have been met.
