Hudson Fellowship - University of Oxford
Secretary of Defense Executive Fellows (SDEF)
Olmsted Scholars

December 9-11, 2020
• Integrate and align Naval education into warfighting development.
• Learning is the ultimate warfighter enabler and the intellectual development of our Sailors provides our most critical warfighting capabilities.
• Under the Naval University system, we will prioritize and align academic efforts and resources for all naval education activities to achieve warfighting advantage. Student and faculty research in warfighting concepts and technology will contribute directly towards this end.
• Longer term, we will instill continuous learning behaviors to broaden and deepen warfighting knowledge which will enable adaptation, improvement, and will strengthen mission command to out-think and outfight any adversary.
