

“HELP WANTED”

Aviation Boatswain’s Mate (H/E/F)

All qualified Sailors should apply!

Videos

Calling all Career Counselors,

Please canvas ALL of our Sailors...the NAVY is looking for sailors to join the Fire & Emergency Services Community!

Aviation Boatswain’s Mate (H/E/F) are the Navy’s Aircraft Firefighters, train in Shore Based Airport & Aircraft Firefighting. ABs provide fire protection fundamentals, fire prevention; emergency medical care/first responder skills; structural fire fighting principles; structural fire ground operations; airport firefighter; aircraft response and fire fighting principles; and live fire training.

- Desired Shore rotation of 36 months with the possibility to extend a year.
- Obtain Certifications in Firefighter I and II, Airport Firefighter, HazMat Operations w/ PPE and PC after successful completion of the Fire Protection Apprentice Course.
- Awarded NEC 786B Shore Based Airport & Aircraft Firefighter and College Credits.
- Possibility of earning EMT-B National Certification (if available) and Pro-Board Certifications.
- Presidential Service (Apply 9 months prior to negotiating window)

Requirements and Details:

- Must pass a Firefighter Physical, screening form located HERE
- Course information and convening schedule located HERE

This career path within the AB community provides schooling and qualifications that are highly desirable