

Cryptologic Technician Interpretive (CTI)

Conversion and “A” School Requests

Updated DECEMBER 2024

General CTI conversion information:

Conversion to CTI can be a lengthy process and Sailors will continue to compete for advancement in their current rating until CTI training is complete.

Note: Sailors will not normally be released from language training to attend Leadership Development Courses (LDC) required for advancement. Sailors should make all possible effort to attend LDC prior to departing their current command.

Upon graduation from CTI “A” school at Defense Language Institute (DLI), Sailors will attend the cryptologic portion of training at Goodfellow AFB in San Angelo, TX. Training at DLI lasts from 9 to 18 months, depending on the language, and follow-on training at Goodfellow lasts ~3 months.

New CTI’s are typically stationed at one of five primary duty stations in Maryland, Georgia, Texas, Hawaii or Korea and the majority of billets for individual languages are located at the same operational sites. Therefore, CTI’s can expect to spend a significant portion of their careers in one location. This concentration of billets makes spouse co-location with non-CT Sailors and other service branch members extremely difficult. There are also some limited opportunities for assignment overseas.

Sea duty for CTI’s includes temporary assignments aboard surface ships and submarines as well as aircrew duty and tours with Naval Special Warfare. All applicants for CTI are required to volunteer for duty onboard submarines. No medical screening for submarine duty is required prior to acceptance. Sailors who are later found to be Not Physically Qualified (NPQ) will not normally lose their rating.

NOTES:

CTI does not participate in the STAR program. Sailors should convert to CTI using the “OBLISERV to Train” (OTT) option, if eligible. Information on the OTT program can be found in MILPERSMAN 1306-604 and associated references. OBLISERV will be 5 years (60 months) from language course start date.

Security eligibility requirements will NOT be waived. The member MUST be a US citizen (no waivers) and all immediate family members must be either a US citizen or the citizen of a country on the Low Threat Matrix listed in Intelligence Community Directive 704 (ICD-704).

Conversion to CTI requires screening by a C10F/FCC Special Security Representative, even if the member already possesses a TS or TS/SCI clearance. No final determination on conversion will be made until this review is complete. DO NOT submit clearance via the local command, this may delay the process. The CTI ECM will forward the SF86 to a C10F/FCC Special Security Representative, who will expedite review under C10F/FCC funding.
