

TAR/NC (CRF) CAREER PATH

The NC (Career Recruiting Force) rating is not open to the incoming recruit. This rating requires a thorough knowledge of the Navy organization, including personnel and administrative procedures and policies. This rating only accepts second class petty officers and above, it is not open to first-term enlistees. A service member who intends to apply for this rating must have experienced the total environment of the Navy in addition to possessing the 803R (recruiter) NEC. The individual's background must clearly indicate familiarity with sea duty, first-hand knowledge of varied aspects of Navy life and duties gained through participation in a wide range of activities and assignments, a high level of leadership as well as comprehension of diverse assigned duties. Duties performed by NC's include: interviewing personnel; career counseling; preparing and delivering presentations; organizing, training, motivating and managing an aggressive career information program; establishing and maintaining liaison with military and civilian agencies; recruit civilian personnel into the Navy.

TAR/NC (CRF) CAREER PATH

Notes:

1. NC (CRF) rating does not have an “A” school.
2. All Legacy and NTAG/TAOC positions/terms are defined under the acronym/position portion below.
3. Each member of the NC Career Recruiting Force (CRF) must first acquire the Canvasser Recruiter NEC of 803R and complete a successful tour as a recruiter. If selected to the Career Recruiting Force, each member is required to attend a 5-week CRF Leadership Academy course.
4. Every member, prior to selection and becoming a CRF, must complete the Personnel Qualification Standard of Leading Petty Officer/Recruiter in Charge, a 6-18 month qualification process. The next level of qualification is Division Leading Chief Petty Officer. Upon qualification, member would be assigned as Division Leading Chief Petty Officer. The Command Trainer position is a 9-12 month qualification process. Followed by ACR at an NTAG, Region ACR position, and the final qualification is the Master Chief position of Chief Recruiter.
5. As there are more challenging recruiting areas throughout the nation, it is desirable for a CRF member to have varying geographically assigned duty stations. This ensures a diversified recruiting experience. Repeated tours in the same geographical location aren't desired, unless individual progresses in billet complexity.
6. Career enhancing billets would include any CNRC or RQAT staff position, as these positions require a minimum of 36 months of successful experience as a Division Leading Chief Petty Officer. Training billets are high op-tempo positions that require an average of 24 weeks TAD during a Fiscal Year (FY) it is expected that personnel filling the N7 team and NORU Instructor positions get their Master Training Specialist qualification before the end of the tour. Region ACR, NCR EA, CNRC staff, N7, NORU, and Region Trainer billets are all Flag command screened positions that provide assessments, training, marketing and leadership throughout the entire Navy recruiting organization. Instructors are assigned to the Navy Orientation Recruiting Unit, providing initial training to all Sailors initial assignment to recruiting duty. Senior CRF personnel are selected and assigned as NCR EA, N7 Senior Inspector, Region Trainers and instructors at NORU's Leadership Academy, which provides in-rate training to all CRF personnel, Recruiters, Classifiers, Operations Officers, and prospective Executive Officers.
