

2020-22 EDUCATIONAL SKILL REQUIREMENTS
Ethics
Subspecialty 1450
975 Program

1. Curriculum Number: 975
2. Curriculum Length in Months: 9-12
3. GRE/GMAT Required: Depending upon admission requirements.
4. The officer will be expected to advise commands on:
 - a. Relevance and impact of ethics in matters of statecraft, to include public policy, international relations and geopolitical affairs.
 - b. Impact of religious and cultural differences on ethics, morals, and law.
 - c. Moral and ethical decisions which influence core values, organizational climate and standards of conduct.
 - d. Conduct of war, operational missions and plans, conscientious objection, war and religion, and biomedical technologies and treatments.
 - e. Ethical implications of emerging technologies and strategies.
 - f. Development, delivery, and evaluation of core values and character training.
5. The officer must understand the fundamental concepts and be familiar with the basic functional areas of Ethics within the DON and the DoD including:
 - a. ESR-1: Classical ethical theories
 - b. ESR-2: Ethical implications of religion in society
 - c. ESR-3: Biomedical ethics
 - d. ESR-4: Just War theory
 - e. ESR-5: Moral theory
 - f. ESR-6: Values development
 - g. ESR-7: Group dynamics and Institutional values

6. Approved Schools List for CIVINS programs:

- a. Duke Divinity School
- b. Chandler School of Theology at Emory University
- c. Princeton Theological Seminary
- d. Boston University
- e. George Mason University
- f. Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary

7. Major Area Sponsor and Subject Matter Experts

a. Major Area Sponsor: [REDACTED] Chief of Chaplains (N097)

b. Subject Matter Expert: [REDACTED] Branch Head Chaplain Corps Training and Education

APPROVED: [REDACTED] 6Apr2020
Sponsor, Chief of Chaplains (OPNAV N097) Date

APPROVED: [REDACTED] 04 Apr 2020
President, JCS Date

APPROVED: [REDACTED] 3 Aug 2020
Director, Warfighter Development (N71) Date