

LDO 648X (EXPLOSIVE ORDNANCE)

DESIGNATOR DESCRIPTION

Explosive Ordnance Disposal Limited Duty Officers serve as technical leaders and managers in the field of explosive ordnance. Their core technical expertise resides in the fields of explosive ordnance, expeditionary diving, and elimination of explosive threats on land and in waterways to include the detection, identification and elimination of chemical, biological radiological and nuclear threats. Conduct contaminated environment EOD operations, exploitation, intelligence collection and distribution, special operations support, mobility, combat skills, operations, mission planning and command and control. They shape and administer readiness policy, manage training and evaluate combat readiness, responsible for developing readiness for expeditionary war fighting capabilities.

They may serve as, but are not limited to: EOD Mobile Unit Training Officers/Readiness Officers, EOD Group Readiness Officers, EOD Training Unit Directors of Training, Executive and Commanding Officers

YRS COMM SVC	SEA	CAREER PATTERN	SHORE
30 CAPT	Naval School EOD CAPT CMD
22 CAPT CMD SCREEN BOARD CDR EOD CO AQD: KG7			NECC/NECCPAC N7 EODTEU CO
16 CO SCREEN BOARD LCDR EOD XO AQD: KG6	EODGRU N7		NECC/NECCPAC N71 EODTEU/NDSTC XO NAVSCOLEOD/TEU/CEODD DOT
10 XO SCREEN BOARD LT AQD: KG0	EODMU/MDSU/NSWDG RTO EODGRU N71 EODMU TO NSWDG TO		NDSTC /EXWDC TO NAVSCOLEOD/AIEDD
4 LTJG AQD: KG5
2 ENS	NSWDG PLT LDR EODMU PLT LDR		EODTEU INST NAVSCOLEOD INST TEU SHORE DET JDO
0			