

TRAINING DESCRIPTIONS

Billet Based Advancement Policy | Target audience: All hands

Billet-Based Advancement enables Sailors to advance to the next higher paygrade via Command Advance to Position (CA2P), Advance to Position (A2P) and the Senior Enlisted Marketplace (SEM). BBA expands Sailor choice of assignment, reduces the number of E-5 and above vacancies, and lessens the number of assignment misalignments.

PERS-4 Detailing Process/Enlisted Distribution | Target audience: Enlisted Sailors

Listen and interact with representatives and subject matter experts regarding critical details on how enlisted personnel are assigned to commands throughout the fleet. Learn how you can plan and develop career priorities that align closely to both individual and family needs while the Navy ensures a "best fit" to reconcile force manning priorities.

NAVY COOL | Target audience: All hands

Navy COOL (Credentialing Opportunities On-Line) helps Navy service members find information on certifications and licenses related to their military occupation and civilian careers. Navy COOL can also be used by recruiters, counselors, credentialing organizations and employers.

USMAP | Target audience: Enlisted Sailors

Start your path towards an apprenticeship with the United Services Military Apprenticeship Program (USMAP). Explore apprenticeships based on your current occupation to make the most out of your military experience. A registered apprenticeship is a formal, structured training program that combines on-the-job training (OJT) or mastery of competencies and related technical instruction. Apprenticeships help show employers documented work experience using sought-after skills in the workforce. Proving you have completed an apprenticeship could qualify you for better jobs and significantly more pay. To participate in USMAP, you must meet specific requirements and must also adhere to standards set by the Department of Labor, designed to ensure the validity and value of the apprenticeship. Come learn and get started today to advance your career!

DANTES | Target audience: Enlisted Sailors and Command Career Counselors

Whether you are looking to advance in your Navy career or preparing for a seamless transition to the civilian workforce, DANTES offers fully funded resources to help you succeed. Stop by our booth to discover how you can fast-track your degree and save money with College Credit-by-Examination programs (CLEP and DSST). Sailors can also learn about improving foundational knowledge for career advancement through the Academic Skills Training (AST) program and explore post-military career pathways using the Kuder Journey platform. Command Career Counselors are also highly encouraged to visit to gain the tools and training necessary to advocate for these education programs within your command.

DEVGRU / NSW | Target audience: Enlisted Sailors

Come learn about a career enhancing opportunity to support an elite unit. All DEVGRU Sailors are able to support a very unique mission set directly applicable in their rate. These orders are not available on MyNavy Assignment. This is for Sailors of all paygrades in the following rates; AD, AE, AG, AM, AT, AW, BU, CE, CM, CTI, CTM, CTR, CTT, CWT, EA, EM, EN, EO, ET, FC, FCA, GM, HM, IC, IS, IT, LS, MA, MC, NC, ND, PR, PS, RP, RW, SW, UT, YN and PACT Sailors.

Naval Special Warfare (COMNAVSPECWARCOM) recruit, organize, train, man, equip, educate, sustain, secure, maintain combat readiness, and deploy Active Component and Reserve Component NSW forces and personnel to accomplish special warfare missions assigned by Commander, United States Special Operations Command (CDR USSOCOM) or, as authorized, combatant commanders (CCDRs) employing special operations forces (SOF). We are looking to engage with Sailors interested in rate conversion into the NSW team and their potential to attend Basic Underwater Demolition/SEAL (BUD/S) or Navy Special Warfare Combat Crewmen (SWCC).

Parenthood and Pregnancy Office (OPNAV 17) | Target audience: All hands

The Parenthood and Pregnancy Roadmap is now available to provide Sailors and their families with a consolidated, easy-to-use resource while navigating their parenthood journey. This resource outlines the policies and procedures for family planning, pregnancy, and postpartum events. While it is a comprehensive resource, it may not address every potential situation a Sailor might encounter. For guidance on a specific situation, consult your chain of command or email Navy_ParenthoodandPregnancy@us.navy.mil.

Navy College Program/Tuition Assistance | Target audience: All hands

Navy College Program will provide useful information on the Navy's Tuition Assistance (TA) and NCPACE program. Education counselors will be available to chat with Sailors about the Navy's VOLED benefits as well as any questions about the Sailor's educational goals. Come learn about eligible benefits and a wide range of education opportunities at no cost.

NCPACE | Target audience: Enlisted Sailors

Don't have the internet? Have you heard about the Navy College Program for Afloat College Education (NCPACE)? NCPACE is a voluntary education program that provides education opportunities to eligible Sailors at commands with Type 2 & 4 UICs (sea duty) without the Internet requirement.

Reserve Processing and Affiliation (RPAC) | Target audience: Sailors preparing to transition from active duty to the United States Navy Reserve (USNR)

Do you have questions about how to transition from active duty to the USNR? Come learn about the process.

Commissioning Source | Target audience: Enlisted Sailors

Come learn about the process and various commissioning routes like Chief Warrant Officer/Limited Duty Officer (CWO/LDO), Seaman to Admiral-21 (STA-21), Officer Candidate School (OCS), Officer Development School (ODS), and United States Naval Academy (USNA).
