FAQ

Q. What is a Dislocation Allowance?
A. A Dislocation Allowance (DLA) is a partial reimbursement for sailors, with or without dependents, for expenses incurred in relocating a household during a PCS move.

Q. Who is eligible for a DLA payment?
A. All Sailors are eligible, unless one of the following applies:
  - The Sailor is executing a PCS move for the first time and does not have dependents.
  - The Sailor is ordered to Active Duty and does not have dependents.
• The Sailor is performing separation or retirement travel.
• The Sailor has received reimbursement for DLA within the same fiscal year (please see Joint Travel Regulations (JTR) U5450 for exceptions).
• The Sailor will be residing in government quarters.

NOTE: Single Sailors, E5 and below, requesting DLA must submit a signed statement from the gaining organization stating he/she will not occupy government quarters. Per OPNAVINST 7220.12, public-private venture (PPV) housing is considered private sector housing and not government quarters.

Q. What is the DLA policy for members who will be residing in government quarters?
A. Sailors who reside in government quarters are not eligible for DLA. Sailors at paygrade E-5 or below requesting Single DLA must submit a signed statement from their gaining command that they will not be residing in government quarters. Per OPNAVINST 7220.12, public-private venture (PPV) housing is considered private sector housing and not government quarters.

Q. How soon can I submit my request for a DLA payment?
A. You can submit your request for a DLA payment to your CPPA prior to your PCS move. CPPAs are required to submit the necessary forms no less than 60 days prior to an approved PCS transfer date.

Q. When will my request be processed by the TPC?
A. The TPC will process the DLA request within 30 days of the approved PCS transfer date provided they receive NPPSC Form 1300/1 (Rev. 02/23) no less than 60 days prior to your approved PCS date.
