AMPN/REF A IS MILPERSMAN ARTICLE 1401-020, ADVANCEMENT EXAM READINESS REVIEW
(AERR)//

RMKS/1. This NAVADMIN announces the Advancement Examination Readiness Review (AERR) schedule from October 2026 through March 2027. AERR panels provide an opportunity for selected rating Fleet Subject Matter Experts (FSME) from Fleet and shore-based commands to positively impact their respective ratings by updating and validating the examination question banks. Selected Chief, Senior Chief, and Master Chief Petty Officers on Active Duty, Training and Administration of the Reserves, and Reservists currently on Active Duty for Operational Support may take part in the process. AERRs enable the Navy to advance the most qualified and rating-knowledgeable Sailors.

2. AERRs are held at Naval Education and Training Professional Development Center (NETPDC) in Pensacola, Florida. Temporary duty travel (TDY) in support of AERR events is considered mission critical and is Flag Officer approved. All costs pertaining to TDY are funded by NETPDC and will be conducted in accordance with applicable Joint Travel Regulations.

3. In line with reference (a), Type Commanders (TYCOM) and rating sponsors will recruit rating FSMEs, select AERR panel members plus two alternate members, and provide names and contact information no less than 60 days prior to the AERR convening date to NETPDC via e-mail at NETPDC_AERR_MAILBOX@us.navy.mil with a subject line of "AERR Selectees."
