

MANPOWER EDUCATIONAL RESOURCES

NAVMAC manpower process determination is covered in each Code's PowerPoint brief, which may be accessed on the NAVMAC Information page of the NAVMAC website.

Additionally, there is a course available on Navy Knowledge Online, Navy Manpower and Personnel, CNATT-NMP-1.0, for Aviation Maintenance Officers.

The Air Force offers two courses that cover the manpower determination process. They are:

E3ALR3S331 0A1A – Manpower Apprentice – 8 weeks

E3OBR38F1 0A1A – Force Support Officer – 10 weeks.

Further information can be found at the Air Force Education and Training Announcements website. (<https://etca.randolph.af.mil/>)

The Army provides one course and has a mobile training team. The links for these courses are:
