

THE REVIEWS ARE IN

"The program was very efficient getting my uniforms in the correct size, tailored and delivered to my front door! Amazing customer service and quick responses to questions via phone or email!"

"I am stationed on an Air Force base in the middle of Texas, rather far from the nearest NEX location. It is incredibly comforting and reassuring to have a professional like you helping me and making sure I get the right items."

"Great program! I was very pleased with the quick turnaround. I was nominated for Sailor of the Year while pregnant and this saved me time and money to use the program - I went all the way to DC [for SOY] and the uniforms looked great!"

MATERNITY UNIFORM PILOT PROGRAM

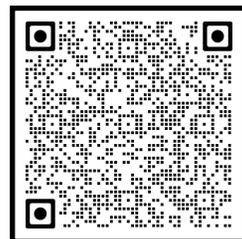

Understanding that pregnant Sailors have plenty to juggle at work and at home, the Navy introduced the maternity uniform pilot program to alleviate most of the challenges that Sailors face when obtaining the required maternity uniforms.

HOW IT WORKS

1

DOWNLOAD 3 FORMS

Visit the MyNavy HR Maternity Pilot Program website to download the Application Instruction Guide, Application and the Uniform Measurement Sheet.

2

FILL OUT MEASUREMENT SHEET

Fill out the Uniform Measurement Sheet with the help of a NEX Uniform Shop, or if you do not live near a NEX, use the "How To Measure" video for step-by-step DIY instructions.

3

FILL OUT APPLICATION

Using the Application Instruction Guide, fill out the application and route it through your chain of command.

4

LEADERSHIP ENDORSEMENT

Your chain of command will then verify you meet the program requirements and endorse your application per the instruction guide.

5

SUBMIT TO UNIFORM MATTERS

Once your measurement sheet is completed and application is endorsed, email both as PDFs to Navy_MPPfct@navy.mil. Visit the website for specific file naming and email guidance.
