1. Purpose. To promulgate eligibility and qualification requirements for assignment to coastal riverine force (CRF) training and evaluation units (TEUs).
2. Program Background. The CRF is responsible for providing mission ready forces fully capable of executing a complete spectrum of missions (e.g., riverine operations, patrols, escorts, surveillance, interdiction, perimeter and harbor defense, high value escort, security teams, and other missions) for combatant commanders. The TEUs were established to provide critical training for CRF units that will facilitate successful execution of mission requirements. The CRF has two TEUs - Coastal Riverine Group ONE (CORIVGRU-1) located in San Diego, CA and Coastal Riverine Group TWO (CORIVGRU-2) TEU located in Virginia Beach, VA.
3. Applicability. Requirements contained in this article apply to officer and enlisted personnel being screened for assignment to UICs 80006 (CORIVGRU-1 TEU) and 47117 (CORIVGRU-2 TEU).
4. Requirements
 - a. Officers:
 - (1) Shall meet all requirements and complete screening processes contained in MILPERSMAN 1300-803.

(2) Shall possess or be eligible for additional qualification designator (AQD) BX3. Officers not possessing or not eligible for AQD BX3 are not eligible for assignment.

b. Enlisted Personnel:

(1) Shall meet all requirements and complete screening processes contained in MILPERSMAN 1300-803.

(2) Shall be qualified for and authorized to wear one of the following enlisted warfare devices:

(a) Enlisted expeditionary warfare (EXW) specialist;

(b) Seabee combat warfare specialist (SCW);

(c) Special warfare combatant-craft crewman (SWCC);

or

(d) Fleet Marine force enlisted warfare specialist (FMFEWS)

NOTE: The intent of this requirement is to ensure Sailors with expeditionary experience are assigned to the TEU to support critical training for deploying forces. In those cases where there are insufficient personnel with one of the above qualifications in the assignment window, waivers may be granted on a case by case basis, taking into consideration the nominee's operational experience. Address waiver requests to CORIVGRU-1, Administrative Department (N1), COM: (619) 437-9434 for UIC 80006 or CORIVGRU-2, Administrative Department (N1), COM: (757) 396-0602 for UIC 47117.

5. Additional information. It is important to note that while TEUs are designated type 1 shore duty for rotational purposes, members will spend extended periods of time in a temporary additional duty status away from the permanent duty station conducting, coordinating, and evaluating field training evolutions, and attending schools and required training.
