1. Policy

a. Duty assignments at Regional Maintenance Center (RMC)/Ship Repair Facility (SRF) are in fleet concentration areas both continental United States (CONUS) and overseas.

b. Duty with RMCs/SRFs is classified as shore duty. Exceptions are as follows:

Location	Classification
RMC/SRF detachments in Manama, Bahrain	Type 3, Overseas Shore Duty-Shore Duty Credit
Naples, Italy	Type 4, Non-Rotated Sea Duty
Yokosuka and Sasebo, Japan	Type 6, Preferred Overseas Shore Duty

2. Background

a. RMCs and SRFs provide a cadre of versatile, technical personnel to improve fleet engineering, electronics, logistics, and weapons readiness through informal classroom training at the various RMC/SRF sites and by providing technical assistance through on-the-job training on board fleet units.

b. Tour length will be the prescribed rating shore tour or Department of Defense (DoD) area tour for overseas assignments.

3. Requirements/Qualifications

a. Members in paygrades E-6 through E-9 that are applying for technical or fleet assist type billets must first be screened and approved by the local RMC/SRF based on the following:

(1) Broad background in various type hulls, mechanical, electrical, weapons, or electronics equipment, as appropriate.

(2) Excellent technical ability; ability to work on own initiative and with others.

(3) Suitability for duty; no record of drug or alcohol abuse, or any infraction that would impede member's ability to perform the RMC/SRF mission.

(4) Overall performance evaluations of "Promotable" or better for the past 4 years.

(5) Instructor/facilitator training prerequisite is desired; however, instructor training may be gained enroute.

b. It is expected that RMC/SRF leadership will engage the rating assignment officers (RAOs) on personnel that they have observed and desire to be ordered to these billets. RAOs, branch heads, and Navy Personnel Command (NAVPERSCOM), Enlisted Distribution Division (PERS-40) will ensure that any concerns from RMC/SRF leadership are taken into consideration when making final decisions on filling these billets.

c. Transferring commanding officers must complete Sections A, C, and D1 and D2 of NAVPERS 1306/92 (Rev. 12-03), Special Program Screening Form (Exhibit 1 of MILPERSMAN 1306-900) on behalf of candidates' nomination for this duty.
