1. Background

a. This article prescribes the procedures by which enlisted members may request assignment to duty in military assistance advisory groups (MAAGS), military groups, North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) commands, joint staffs, attaché (embassy) duty, or similar activities.

b. The largest percentage of billets presently established within these special activities are for the YN, IT, and ET ratings (pay grades E-4 thru E-8).

c. Some requirements do exist; however, for a variety of other ratings and Navy enlisted classifications (NECs). Interested members may contact the MAAGS desk at Navy Personnel Command, Shore Special Programs Assignment Branch (PERS-4010G) to determine if a requirement exists for a particular rating, pay grade, or NEC.

d. Tour lengths will be 36 months in the continental United States or Department of Defense area tour for overseas assignment.

2. Requirements and Qualifications

a. For assignment to some activities, foreign language qualifications are desirable, but not mandatory. Members assigned to billets with mandatory foreign language qualifications will be assigned a course of instruction at the Defense Language Institute.
