1. Background. This article addresses enlisted musician (MU) assignment policies for the United States (U.S.) Navy Band (USNB), Washington, DC and the U.S. Naval Academy Band (USNAB), Annapolis, MD. The Navy's preferentially-staffed bands are non-rotated special duty assignments.

2. Policy

a. Chief of Naval Personnel will assign only the most highly qualified MUs to USNB and USNAB to maintain the unique musical and professional standards required of these preferentially-staffed presidential support and Service academy organizations.

b. Fleet Band Activities (FBA) will ensure MUs serving on active duty are notified of vacancies in either band.

c. MUs serving in the USNB and USNAB will not normally be reassigned unless the needs of the Service dictate otherwise. Members who fail to retain assignment eligibility and those desiring to terminate special-duty status may request reassignment via FBA. Requests for reassignment will be considered on a case-by-case basis, dependent on individual member's status and fleet manning levels. Members are not eligible for reassignment until completion of a minimum 36-month tour of duty with either USNB or USNAB.

3. Eligibility. Active duty MUs in pay grades E-6 and below are eligible to audition.

4. Requirements

a. Members assigned to USNB and USNAB must possess the required levels of professional and personal performance standards for assignment.

b. Due to the high visibility of Navy bands and frequent contact with the public, foreign dignitaries, and senior Government officials, members must maintain an outstanding personal appearance and impeccable military bearing.

5. Procedures

a. All applicants for assignment must schedule and complete a personal audition and interview at USNB or USNAB, unless waived by the respective leader.

b. Applicants must submit NAVPERS 1306/92 Special Program Screening (sections A, D1, D2, and command endorsement completed) to Director, FBA prior to scheduling an audition.

c. Commanding Officer, USNB and Director, USNAB have the authority to accept applicants for assignment to their respective bands (within authorized allowances), unless the needs of the Service dictate otherwise.

d. Members meeting the requirements for assignment will be notified by the Director, FBA. Orders will be processed by the member's respective detailer in coordination with the member's current command.
