1. Program Background. Commander, Naval Special Warfare Development Group (COMNAVSPECWARDEVGRU) is responsible for the research, development, testing, and evaluation of state of the art, commercially procured and modified equipment in support of naval special warfare operational forces. The command is also responsible for the evaluation of advance maritime, ground, and airborne tactics that may be applicable to naval special warfare, and to assist in the determination of the suitability and implementation of the equipment and tactics for the use by naval special warfare, Department of the Navy, and Department of Defense.

a. COMNAVSPECWARDEVGRU manages a worldwide recruiting and screening program to identify personnel for assignment to the command. The recruiting and or screening team conducts record screening and personal interviews with personnel who meet the initial qualification criteria.

b. Most billets are for pay grades E-5 through E-9; however, qualified, highly motivated personnel of lower pay grades may be considered.

c. Considering the extensive training received at COMNAVSPECWARDEVGRU, all tour lengths will be 4 years with the option to be considered for a 1 or 2 year extension at the conclusion of the initial 4 years.
