- Policy. A fleet reservist recalled to active duty and appointed as a temporary officer under reference (a), sections 5597 and 5787, may be returned to inactive status in the Fleet Reserve in the highest temporary rank or grade satisfactorily held as provided in reference (a), section 6488.
- Retainer Pay. Members of the Fleet Reserve described above shall not be entitled to have their retainer pay computed on the basis of the highest temporary grade satisfactorily held by them until they have completed 30 years of service or until they are placed on the Retired List.
- Active Duty. Members assigned to the Fleet Reserve who have been appointed officers may be ordered to active duty in time of war or national emergency declared by the Congress, for the duration of the war or national emergency and 6 months thereafter, or in time of national emergency declared by the President. In general, they will not be ordered to active duty in time of peace except with their consent.
