1. What Can Happen During Suspension? If there is misconduct, or further deficiencies in performance or behavior during the period of suspension, one or more of the following actions may be taken:

- a. Disciplinary action (nonjudicial punishment or court-marital).
- b. New administrative separation (ADSEP) processing action.
- c. Vacation of the suspended discharge and execution of the separation.

2. Vacating Suspension. Prior to vacation of a suspension, the member shall be notified in writing of the basis for the action, be afforded the opportunity to consult with counsel, and given the opportunity to submit a statement in writing to the separation authority (SA). The respondent shall be provided a reasonable period of time, but not less than 2 working days, to act on the notice. If the respondent identifies specific legal issues for consideration by the SA, the matter shall be reviewed by a judge advocate or civilian lawyer employed by Navy prior to final action by the SA.
