SETTING ASIDE NONJUDICIAL PUNISHMENTS (NJP)

- Updated title to "SETTING ASIDE NONJUDICIAL PUNISHMENT"
- Changed from 90 to 120 days for processing set aside actions, per references (a) through (c)
- Clarified BUPERS-00J's role in providing processing notifications to commands and members
- Clarified that commands and Service members remain responsible for follow-on actions (e.g., pay, admin updates, local record corrections).
- Added requirement for commands to include as an enclosure to the letter of notification (LON) all relevant disciplinary and administrative materials, including the applicable report of nonjudicial punishment (NJP), general court-martial convening authority (GCMCA) appeal response, and or related administrative separation documentation
- Article has been revised throughout and should be reviewed in its entirety
