LIST OF NOBC TITLES BY FUNCTIONAL AREA

PART C

NAVY OFFICER BILLET CLASSIFICATION (NOBC) CODES

1. General

a. Navy Officer Billet Classifications (NOBCs) identify officer billet requirements and officer occupational experience acquired through billet experience or through a combination of education and experience.

b. An NOBC provides a general description of a group of positions sufficiently alike in respect to their duties and responsibilities to justify a common name and similar treatment in selection, compensation, and other human resource processes. It is not meant to cover every duty required of the job nor is every duty listed necessarily a requirement of the billet. Similarly, an NOBC in an officer's record does not necessarily indicate that the officer has experience in every duty listed in the definition. The NOBC identifies a group of officer billets which are similar but not necessarily identical in scope and nature of duties.

c. Each NOBC consists of a four-digit code, a long title, an ADP short title and a definition. The first digit identifies the field, the second digit identifies the group within the field and the third and fourth digits indicate the specific billet classification within the group. NOBC titles and definitions reflect billet titles and several representative duties.

d. A need exists in certain personnel management operations for information concerning codes occupationally related to specific NOBCs. These codes, defined below, immediately follow the definition of each NOBC.

(1) Related Codes. The NOBCs listed aid in the selection of naval officers to fill mobilization billets. In the absence of officers with exact qualifying experience, the list of related codes provides alternate NOBCs enabling identification of officers who qualify for specific billets by virtue of related experience and/or training.

(2) The DOD Group identifies the group number and title in the Department of Defense Occupational Conversion Manual (DOD 1312.01 series with DoD ODB Crosswalk) which corresponds to the NOBC. This manual, maintained by the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Manpower, Reserve Affairs and Logistics), compiles the occupational classifications of the armed forces under a common occupational grouping and numerical coding system.

2. Application

a. When applied to a billet, the NOBC is a general statement of duties performed in accomplishing some part of an activity's mission. When a single NOBC in combination with other information provided does not describe a billet adequately, use of a second NOBC provides further description. The allowed grade distinguishes billets which differ in degree of authority or responsibility but not in essential duties performed. Similarly, the same NOBC code identifies principal and assistant billets distinguishing between the two by adding the word "assistant" at the beginning of the billet title.

b. An NOBC entered in an officer's record reflects experience acquired as a result of performance in a billet or, in some instances, a combination of experience and education related to the billet's requirement. A combination of experience and education gained through Reserve participation and certified by designated authority is a basis for updating the classifications in an officer's record.

3. Assignment

a. Assignment of an NOBC on all officer billets is mandatory. OPNAVINST 1000.16 series provides procedures for submitting changes to Manpower Authorizations.

b. For active duty officers the NOBC code appearing in the first NOBC column of an Officer Distribution Control Report (ODCR) transfers automatically to an officer's record upon assignment to a billet identified by that NOBC. But, the code is removed from the officer's record if the officer is in the billet for less than five months. An officer's automated record holds a maximum of 30 NOBCs reflecting the officer's most recent billet experience. Volume II of this manual provides procedures for submitting corrections to an officer's data card.

c. For Officers in the Reserve Component (RC). Qualification records, including NOBC codes, are maintained by Navy Personnel Command (NAVPERSCOM). NOBC codes on officer billets, which listed on the Reserve Unit Assignment Document (RUAD), transfer automatically to an officer's record after serving eighteen months in the assigned billet. RC members that do not meet the automation requirement criteria may submit an NOBC code request to NAVPERSCOM (PERS-9) using the format contained in BUPERSINST 1001.39F utilizing the following criteria:

(1) Assigned to RC billet but not on extended active duty orders. Member provided forty-eight days of billet support (which is equivalent to 72 Inactive Duty Training (IDT) periods and a twelve-day Annual Training (AT) may request NOBC codes assigned to the RC billet.

(2) Not assigned to an AC billet, but on extended active duty (e.g. active duty for special work (ADSW) or active duty for training (ADT)). Member on active duty for at least five months may request up to two NOBC codes that accurately identify the job assignment.

(3) Assigned to an AC billet (e.g. mobilization or definite recall). Member in an AC Navy billet for at least five months may request the assigned NOBC codes. If billet does not contain an NOBC code, member may request up to two NOBC codes that most accurately identify the billet assigned.

(4) Applicable civilian experience. If an officer's civilian job provides expertise in an area that would otherwise qualify for an NOBC if the position were military, then the officer may request the applicable NOBC through NAVPERSCOM (PERS-9). Civilian experience applies to officers in the Ready Reserve and Standby Reserve (Active).

NOTE: Although an officer's record contains an unlimited number of earned NOBC codes, the Officer Summary Record (OSR) only displays the ten most recently earned NOBC codes. Additional guidance on the RC policy and process is contained in BUPERSINST 1001.39F.

4. Justification to Establish and/or Retain NOBCs. To establish and/or retain a code within the NOBC structure, an NOBC should meet the following criteria:

a. It describes the qualitative requirements of existing or proposed billets in Manpower Authorizations and Officer Distribution Control Reports.

b. It applies in planning, personnel control, career management, education and training, or manpower information functions.

c. It applies Navy-wide and does not reflect purely local conditions or organization unless it is necessary to meet the criteria stated in paragraph 4b.

d. It does not duplicate an existing code.

e. It identifies billets, both peacetime and mobilization, and officer experience, both active and inactive.

f. It identifies a minimum of 15 billets.

g. Definitions should be concise and preferably limited to fifty words. They should be broad enough to identify all billets with similar requirements, yet narrow enough to distinguish significant differences not identified through other codes (e.g., designator, grade and activity). Definitions should stress what is done rather than how or why it is done. They should not include duties required of all officers, such as training of subordinates or preparing routine reports, unless such duties are a distinct requirement of the billet.

5. Recommendations to Establish, Disestablish, or Revise NOBCs

a. To make sure NOBCs continue to reflect current technological and administrative developments, commands and officers are invited to review and evaluate these classifications and, if appropriate, submit recommendations for improvement. An activity recommending a new NOBC should first ensure that an established NOBC in its present form, or with some revision, will not suffice for identifying the occupational aspects of the billets involved. Commands recommending establishing, deleting or revising NOBCs should consider the criteria listed in paragraph 4 above. Additionally, all recommendations should include the appropriate information as follows:

- (1) Recommendations to establish NOBCs must include:
 - (a) Recommended code number, long title and short title. The maximum length for the short title is 14 spaces, including blank spaces.
 - (b) Recommended definition (preferably limited to fifty words);
 - (c) Number and location of billets by activity type that the proposed NOBC will identify;
 - (d) Designators and grades applicable to the proposed code;
 - (e) List of special training required for the incumbent officer (include length and type of course(s) and/or on-the-job training);
 - (f) Information on how the requirements/qualifications are currently identified;
 - (g) Justification stating why the existing billet descriptors are insufficient without the proposed NOBC, and other historical or amplifying information necessary for prudent consideration at each level of review; and
 - (h) Point of contact (include telephone (both commercial and DSN number, fax number, and e-mail address).
- (2) Recommendations to disestablish NOBCs must include:
 - (a) Code and title of existing NOBC;
 - (b) Reason(s) for deleting the code (e.g., qualifications duplicated by another code, insufficient billets to meet the criterion in paragraph 4.f. above) and any other information needed for consideration at each level of review;
 - (c) Information on which NOBC(s), if any, will absorb the duties of the code;
 - (d) Information on how to recode the billets and officers, if appropriate, presently coded with this NOBC; and
 - (e) Point of contact.
- (3) Recommendations to revise NOBCs must include:
 - (a) Code and title of existing NOBC;
 - (b) Proposed recoding, retitling and/or rewording of the current NOBC;
 - (c) Justification for the proposed revision(s); and
 - (d) Point of contact.

b. Submit all recommendations according to the procedures outlined in the introduction of this manual.

c. Due to data integrity over time and the risk of future personnel misrepresentation, best practices mandate that classification elements are not to be reused once they are disestablished. To this end, deleted or disestablished NOBCs will not be reused at any time unless they are reestablished under the same criteria and guidelines as previously published.
