Reinterments highlight NPC mission

No matter how long it takes, Navy Casualty team provides commitment, closure to families

CAPT Robert T. McMahon III, Director of Navy Casualty

This year marks the 20th anniversary of the 2001 terrorist attacks and the 80th anniversary of the 1941 Pearl Harbor attacks. Each of these dark days deeply impacted our nation and the lives of the service members who fought our nation's wars.

As Navy Personnel Command's (NPC) Director of Navy Casualty, I strongly believe that each of us owe a great debt of gratitude to those who have gone before us and left their legacy as an example for us to follow. Our commitment to our fellow Sailors does not diminish with time; 18 years or 80, we will do our very best to return them home.

The Navy Casualty team which consists of Navy morticians, casualty case workers, benefits specialists, and POW/MIA action officers, is one of Commander Navy Personnel Command, Rear Adm. Holsey’s, no-fail missions and one of our roles is to bring home those who have paid the ultimate price. One special project is the USS Oklahoma (BB 37) Sailor identification and reinterments. On Dec. 7, 1941 415 Sailors and 14 Marines lost their lives on USS Oklahoma.

The medical technology of that era kept us from identifying 394 of the 429 Sailors and Marines, and they were eventually buried as “unknowns” in Hawaii. For years that was the end of a very sad story, but starting in 2015, the Defense POW/MIA Accounting Agency (DPAA), in cooperation with cemetery officials, exhumed the remaining caskets associated with the USS Oklahoma to begin DNA identification of the Sailors.

Today, 388 of the 429 Sailors and Marines have been positively identified and are being laid in their final resting places in accordance with family wishes. Navy Casualty played a key role in this process by getting families to participate and provide samples of their DNA for comparison and then later providing a caseworker to the family to work through the reinternment process when their loved one was identified. This story will officially conclude with a ceremony Dec. 7, 2021 where the last of the remains will be reinterred at the National Memorial Cemetery of the Pacific (NMCP) in Oahu, HI. Recovering and identifying the remains of Sailors gave the Navy the opportunity to honor these Sailors who paid the ultimate sacrifice and gave their lives for our country.

This timeless commitment is one

Retired Reservists: Be proactive

By CDR Sarah McGann,
Retirement Transition Outreach Program Manager

Navy Personnel Command (NPC), Re- serve Personnel Management (PERS-9), conducts a Retirement Transition Outreach (RTO) program to educate Navy Reservists including Retired Reservists, also known as Gray Area retirees, on their retiree pay and benefits.

If you retired from “participation” in the Navy Reserve, you’ll definitely want to be conscientious and proactive about your request and paperwork timing as you look ahead to receiving your retirement pay and enrolling in retired health benefits. The RTO program can help you understand how to proceed including the application and enrollment processes and timelines.

Retirement pay processing typically takes approximately six to 12 months. Within NPC, PERS-912 is the specific group that processes applications for retirement pay received from members to DFAS. In order to best assure on time receipt of retirement pay, members should start the process by submitting their application to PERS-912 as early as one year prior to estimated Retired Pay Eligibility Date, submitting their application to PERS-912 in Millington, Tennessee, up to a year in advance of eligibility for retired pay.

If your application timing is delayed, for some reason compared to your effective date of eligibility for retired pay, then your pay will be retroactive back to that eligibility date (usually the member’s 60th birthday), limited by the Barr- ring Act to a maximum of six (6) years. Mail all forms with original signatures to the following address:

Some people have reported problems accessing or downloading these required forms to apply for retired pay and benefits (DD Forms 108 and 2656). The forms are fillable, make sure you have Adobe Reader installed at a minimum, and try using various browsers and sources of the forms. Google Chrome, plus a current version of Adobe Acrobat Reader gen- erally yields success in downloading and employing these fillable forms. The current versions of both forms may be downloaded from the Department of Defense forms library:

Form 108 will be the easiest part of this application. We do recommend submitting with your application any documentation of missing retirement points, as well as legal documentation of any dependent status changes for your Survivor Benefit Plan (SBP). You DO NOT need to iterate your point record on DD Form 108. You actually can just fill in your personal information.

If you have not served on active orders since Jan. 29, 2008, the date on which you will be eligible for your retired pay will be your 60th birthday; enter this date in Block 3; otherwise, leave Block 3 blank for the PERS-912 to calculate and enter. Make a diagonal line across all the data in the middle and write something to the effect of “I will accept records on file with the Department of the Navy” and sign and date. Alternatively, if you have a copy of your point record (ASOSH) or Statement of Service, you can just attach/enclose that with your packet and take a similar approach as above, writing something to the effect of “See attached/enclosed.” Or, you can sign it with “See attached point record which is inaccurate, and enclosed supporting documentation to update it’ or something to that effect.

If you have reviewed your point record and know it to contain errors, you can submit documentation to make your point record corrections in ad- vance of submitting your application for retired pay. The team in PERS-912 can also make the updates to your point record in line with processing your application for retired pay. In any case, up- dates to your point record may be made while you are in the Gray Area, and the first major step PERS-912 makes while processing your application for retired pay is to close out your point record. Form 2656 frequently presents more challenges to members applying for retired pay. Enter the date in block 4 on the Form 2656, in similar fashion to the Block 3 on Form 108 – 60th birthday OR leave blank.

Current DEERS data keeps your health benefits running smoothly

Have you updated DEERS lately?
Is your information current?
Here’s why having the right data is important. When TRICARE recently tried to reach a group of retirees with critical information, more than six out of 10 had incorrect information in DEERS. If your data is out of date, you’ll need to update your information in DEERS to avoid a host of potential problems. Why? Your information must be correct in DEERS so that:
► You and your family maintain access to your medical benefits
► Your healthcare team can contact you with critical healthcare and appointment information
► TRICARE can reach you with vital authorization, claims, and enrollment information, and ► Home delivery prescriptions can be delivered properly.

When do I need to update DEERS?
Beneficiaries need to update DEERS as soon as possible any- time they move, change contact information, or experience a Qualifying Life Event (QLE).

A beneficiary must update DEERS whenever they experi- ence the following (this list is not all-inclusive):
► Change in sponsor’s status
► Retiring or separating
► Activating or deactivating
► Having a baby or adopting
► Moving to a new location for any reason

► Change in a student’s full-time enrollment status
► Becoming eligible for Medicare
► Death of sponsor or family member

If a beneficiary is enrolled in any TRICARE plan (e.g., TRICARE Prime, TRICARE Select, TRICARE Reserve Se- lect, TRICARE Retired Reserve or TRICARE Young Adult), remind them to also change their address and other personal information with their regional contractor.

Considering foreign government employment? Emoluments Clause spells out gift regulations

The Emoluments Clause to the U.S. Constitution, Article I, Section 9. Clause 8, as interpreted in Comptroller General opinions and by the Department of Justice Office of Legal Counsel, prohibits receipt of consulting fees, gifts, travel expenses, honoraria, or salary by all retired military personnel, officer and enlisted, Regular and Reserve, from a foreign government unless Congressional consent is first obtained. The Emoluments Clause also applies to Reservists serving in a State’s Adjutant General status. Consent is provided by Congress in 37 U.S.C. § 908, which requires advance approval from the Secretary of the Navy and the Secretary of State before a SELRES or retired Sailor accepts employment, consulting fees, gifts, travel expenses, honoraria or salary from a foreign government. The Secretary of the Navy has delegated the authority to provide approval on his behalf to the Chief of Naval Personnel (CNP). Once CNP approves a request for a SELRES or retired Sailor to receive an emolumment, CNP forwards the request to the Secretary of State for final approval.

VA enhances geriatric emergency care for older veterans

WASHINGTON — The Department of Veterans Affairs launched a Geriatric Emergency Department initiative within all of VA’s 18 Veterans Integrated Service Networks through a comprehensive, standardized care model, becoming the nation’s largest integrated health network with specialized geriatric emergency care.

This initiative equips VA emergency departments with the ability to treat older veterans with complex conditions, catch unmet care needs and develop teamwork strategies through outreach to local emergency departments and health systems. VA has partnered with the American College of Emergency Physicians (ACEP), The John A. Hartford Foundation and the West Health Institute to ensure elderly veterans receive age-friendly emergency care, while improving care coordination in communities across the nation.

VA continues to promote and augment transitions of care through an interdisciplinary team approach from various services throughout the country. This is achieved through connecting with social work and VA home/community resource personnel, geriatric education for emergency department staff and supporting geriatric veterans in the community to prevent avoidable admissions.

The partnership aims to establish Level 1-3 VA sites as a comprehensive, standardized care model within all of VA’s 18 Veterans Integrated Service Networks through a comprehensive, standardized care model, becoming the nation’s largest integrated health network with specialized geriatric emergency care.

VA Welcome Kit: A handy navigational tool

By Mike Galloucis, Executive Director, VA Benefit Experience Directorate

Veterans often times receive information about the Department of Veterans Affairs in a fragmented way. This can create confusion and a dissonant experience for veterans and their families as they attempt to understand and access VA’s many different services and benefits. The VA has produced the VA Welcome Kit to specifically address this challenge.

Since assuming his current duties on Feb. 8, 2021, Secretary of Veterans Affairs Denis R. McDonough has added customer experience (CX) principles to VA’s longstanding “I CARE” (Integrity, Commitment, Advocacy, Respect and Excellence) core values.

In support of the Secretary’s intent, the VA’s Veterans Experience Office (VEXO) under the direction of Chief Experience Officer John W. Boerstler, produces the VA Welcome Kit each year and distributes it in conjunction with Veterans Day. The product is specifically designed to make it easier for U.S. Service Members, Veterans, Family Members, Caregivers and Survivors to understand VA’s many different services and benefits offered by VA.

“Veterans remain at the center of every decision we make. It is the responsibility of every [VA] employee to deliver exceptional outcomes and experiences,” said Secretary of Veterans Affairs Denis R. McDonough. “Our individual and organizational commitment to delivering exceptional experiences in our service delivery continues.”

The VA Welcome Kit provides pertinent information and helps overcome the natural apprehension many people experience when interacting with a large, complex organization like VA for the first time. It is written in an easy-to-understand and concisely manner and includes information on popular VA benefits, including applying for VA healthcare, a disability rating, education benefits, etc., The VA Welcome Kit highlights key VA benefits and services available that can positively impact quality of life and explains how and where to go to access those benefits and services.

The VA Welcome Kit also includes handy one-page (front and back) Quick Start Guides (QSGs) focused on specific topics of interest to service members, veterans, family members, caregivers and survivors validated through empirical and anecdotal field research. The Welcome Kit is regularly updated online as new information becomes available.

Within VA, the Benefits Experience (BX) Directorate is assigned responsibility for producing the VA Welcome Kit. BX is a diverse, dedicated, and effective team comprised of Veterans (including several retired Soldiers, a Vietnam Veteran and four combat veterans of Operation Iraqi Freedom) and other highly qualified men and women with decades of VA experience in different service lines. BX personnel routinely interact with veterans and family members virtually and in person at different venues and relies on those interactions and field research when developing content for, and identifying ways to improve, the Welcome Kit.

General feedback and suggestions on ways VA can improve the Welcome Kit can be sent directly to yaywelcomkit@va.gov.

A YouTube video on the welcome kit can be viewed at: https://youtu.be/D2yYTWCWxIE

VA providing COVID-19 vaccines

All veterans, their spouses and caregivers, and CHAMPVA recipients can now get a COVID-19 vaccine at VA. Find out how to get your vaccine. And get the latest VA vaccine updates and answers to common questions.

Updates: Additional doses and FDA approvals

Certain groups of people with weakened immune systems can now get a third dose of the Pfizer-BioNTech or Moderna COVID-19 vaccine. Get the latest updates here.

The FDA has now approved the Pfizer-BioNTech COVID-19 vaccine for people ages 16 and older. This vaccine is still authorized for use in youth ages 12 to 15. Learn more about the Pfizer-BioNTech vaccine approval on the FDA website.

How to get a COVID-19 vaccine at VA

Getting your vaccine as soon as you can is the best way to protect yourself, your family, and your community against COVID-19. This is especially important as new forms (or “variants”) of the coronavirus spread more quickly in the U.S.

Go to the facility’s vaccine clinic during walk-in hours. Be sure to check the walk-in hours before you go. When you arrive, you may need to wait for the staff to prepare the vaccine. Call the facility to schedule an appointment. Our staff will help you find a time that’s convenient for you.

If you don’t receive care at VA, you can pre-register online at least one hour before you go to a walk-in clinic. This will save you time when you arrive.

If you got your first vaccine dose outside of VA, you can still get your second dose at VA. Everyone who enters a VA facility must wear a mask and complete our COVID-19 symptom screening.

To find VA facilities in your area that offer COVID-19 vaccines, go here.

We offer COVID-19 vaccines to these groups:

• All veterans (including Veterans who live or travel outside of the U.S. and are eligible for the VA Foreign Medical Program)
• Spouses and surviving spouses of veterans

This includes anyone who served in the U.S. military, including the U.S. National Guard, Reserves, or Coast Guard; veterans who live or travel outside of the U.S. and are eligible for the VA Foreign Medical Program; and anyone who served in any of the following roles:

• Commissioned officer of the Regular or Reserve Corp of the Public Health Service, or
• Commissioned officer of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (or Coast and Geodetic Survey), or
• Cadet at the U.S. Military, Air Force, or Coast Guard Academy, or Midshipman at the United States Naval Academy.

Caregivers of veterans: For COVID-19 vaccine eligibility, we define a caregiver as a family member or friend who provides care to a veteran. Caregivers may help a Veteran with personal needs like feeding, bathing, or dressing. They may also help a veteran with tasks like shopping or transportation. Veterans oftentimes receive information about the Department of Veterans Affairs in a fragmented way. This can create confusion and a disjointed experience for veterans and their families as they attempt to understand and access VA's many different services and benefits. The VA has produced the VA Welcome Kit to specifically address this challenge.

Since assuming his current duties on Feb. 8, 2021, Secretary of Veterans Affairs Denis R. McDonough has added customer experience (CX) principles to VA's longstanding "I CARE" (Integrity, Commitment, Advocacy, Respect and Excellence) core values.

In support of the Secretary's intent, the VA's Veteran Experience Office (VEO) under the direction of Chief Experience Officer John W. Boerstler, produces the VA Welcome Kit each year and distributes it in conjunction with Veterans Day. The product is specifically designed to make it easier for U.S. Service Members, Veterans, Family Members, Caregivers and Survivors to understand the many different benefits and services offered by VA. "Veterans remain at the center of every decision we make. It is the responsibility of every [VA] employee to deliver exceptional outcomes and experiences," said Secretary of Veterans Affairs Denis R. McDonough. "Our individual and organizational commitment to delivering exceptional experiences in our service delivery continues."

The VA Welcome Kit provides pertinent information and helps overcome the natural apprehension most people experience when interacting with a large, complex organization like VA for the first time. It is written in an easy-to-understand and concise manner and includes information on popular VA benefits, including applying for VA healthcare, a disability rating, education benefits, etc. The VA Welcome Kit highlights key VA benefits and services available that can positively impact quality of life and explains how and where to go to access those benefits and services.

The VA Welcome Kit also includes handy one-page (front and back) Quick Start Guides (QSGs) focused on specific topics of interest to service members, veterans, family members, caregivers and survivors validated through empirical and anecdotal field research. The Welcome Kit is regularly updated online as new information becomes available.

Within VA, the Benefits Experience (BX) Directorate is assigned responsibility for producing the VA Welcome Kit. BX is a diverse, dedicated, and effective team comprised of Veterans (including several retired Soldiers, a Vietnam Veteran and four combat veterans of Operation Iraqi Freedom) and other highly qualified men and women with decades of VA experience in different service lines. BX personnel routinely interact with veterans and family members virtually and in person at different venues and rely on those interactions and field research when developing content for, and identifying ways to improve, the Welcome Kit.

The VA Welcome Kit can be downloaded and printed directly from the website https://www.va.gov/welcome-kit. General feedback and suggestions on ways VA can improve the Welcome Kit can be sent directly to yowelcomekit@va.gov.

A video on the welcome kit can be viewed at: https://youtu.be/D2vYTWCWatE

VA providing COVID-19 vaccines

All veterans, their spouses and caregivers, and CHAMPVA recipients can now get a COVID-19 vaccine at VA. Find out how to get your vaccine. And get the latest VA vaccine updates and answers to common questions.

Updates: Additional doses and FDA approvals

Certain groups of people with weakened immune systems can now get a third dose of the Pfizer-BioNTech or Moderna COVID-19 vaccine. Get the latest updates here.

The FDA has now approved the Pfizer-BioNTech COVID-19 vaccine for people ages 16 and older. This vaccine is still authorized for use in youth ages 12 to 15. Learn more about the Pfizer-BioNTech vaccine approval on the FDA website.

How to get a COVID-19 vaccine at VA

Getting your vaccine as soon as you can is the best way to protect yourself, your family, and your community against COVID-19. This is especially important as new forms (or “variants”) of the coronavirus spread more quickly in the U.S. Go to the facility’s vaccine clinic during walk-in hours. Be sure to check the walk-in hours before you go. When you arrive, you may need to wait for the staff to prepare the vaccine. Call the facility to schedule an appointment. Our staff will help you find a time that’s convenient for you.

If you don’t receive care at VA, you can pre-register online at least one hour before you go to a walk-in clinic. This will save you time when you arrive.

If you got your first vaccine dose outside of VA, you can still get your second dose at VA. Everyone who enters a VA facility must wear a mask and complete our COVID-19 symptom screening.

Navy Lodge locations open for leisure travel

Guests not fully vaccinated against COVID-19 should continue to follow DoD face covering guidance

Most Navy Lodge locations around the world are now taking reservations for leisure travel on a space available basis. In Spring 2020, Navy Lodges began restricting leisure travel as its locations were used to accommodate guests placed on restriction of movement orders by their commands due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

“We are excited to welcome back our leisure travel guests,” said Chris Settelien, vice president, Navy Exchange Service Commands (NEXCOM) Navy Lodge Program. “While our primary mission is to support military members on permanent change of station orders or temporary duty, we are also here for our families who are enjoying time away from work and on vacation. It will be nice to see them back in our Navy Lodges.”

As has been done over the past year, Navy Lodges will continue to practice its ‘Shipshape and Squared Away’ cleaning protocols, providing a safe and secure environment for its guests. Breakfast has also been reintroduced and guests can utilize express check-out. In addition, in accordance with the Department of Defense (DoD) and Centers for Disease Control policies, and in concurrence with individual installation Commanding Officers, the Navy Exchange Service Command (NEXCOM) will no longer require fully vaccinated patrons or associates to wear a face mask while in a Navy Lodge. To avoid any confusion, signage has been placed at the entry-ways at all Navy Lodges as a reminder of the current policy that is in effect at that location. However, any Navy Lodge guest who is not fully vaccinated against COVID-19 should continue to follow applicable DoD face covering guidance, which includes wearing a mask at all times while indoors.

Navy Lodges offer patrons oversized guest rooms and family suites with onsite amenities such as vending machines, guest laundry area and fitness room and children's outside play area. Navy Lodges also offer free Wi-Fi and breakfast and every Navy Lodge is accessable. Facilities taking precautions against Covid-19 to ensure former servicemembers’ health, well-being

If you’re considering a move to a safe and secure senior community that caters to independent living veterans, then the Armed Forces Retirement Home (AFRH) might have the answer. With more than 98 percent of residents fully vaccinated, AFRH continues to take extraordinary precautions against COVID-19 to ensure their health and well-being. Since the start of the pandemic, we’ve conducted over 26,000 COVID-19 tests and maintained strict infection control measures—such as wearing face coverings, social distancing and frequent hand washing and hand sanitizing. We closely follow Department of Defense and Centers for Disease Control and Prevention guidelines to ensure everyone’s safety.

POTUS announces 2022 pay raise plan

Provided by MyFederalRetirement

In an Aug. 27 letter to Congress, President Biden released an alternative pay plan for the 2022 federal pay raise for civilian employees. In the letter, the president is recommending a 2.2 percent across-the-board pay increase for federal employees in 2022, with an additional 0.5 percent locality pay adjustment. The total average pay increase would be 2.7 percent.

Depending on what location the employees work, some may receive a lower or higher figure based on the final locality pay rates. According to the letter, the pay “adjustment will take effect on the first day of the first applicable pay period beginning on or after Jan. 1, 2022.”

Earlier this year, the White House proposed a 2.7 percent pay raise as part of the fiscal 2022 budget plan but it did not clarify how locality adjustments would be affected.

The recommended 2022 pay increase is a lift from last year’s 1.0 percent across-the-board hike. 2021 locality pay adjustments were frozen at 2020 levels.

“We appreciate President Biden’s desire to give federal employees a pay raise in 2022, especially one that includes an increase in locality pay rates,” the National Treasury Employees Union (NTEU) National said in a press statement. “This is a vast improvement over the previous administration’s attempts to freeze federal pay.”

However, federal employee pay increases have lagged for years and there is still a real gap between federal pay and comparable positions in the private sector. According to the Federal Salary Council, federal employees are paid 23.11 percent less than their private sector peers. NTEU notes that a 3.2 percent average raise is merited in 2022, as called for in the FAIR Act legislation introduced earlier this year. We will continue to urge Congress to implement an average 2.2 percent increase across the board, plus a one percent boost toward locality pay.”

“President Biden’s alternative pay plan providing for a 2.7 percent pay increase in 2022 for federal employees is in line with his proposal earlier this year to provide a 2.7 percent pay adjustment for military personnel and civil service employees, also known as pay parity,” said American Federation of Government Employees National President Everett Kelley. “Pay parity recognizes the essential contributions that civil service and uniformed personnel make to our country, and we are pleased that the Biden administration has honored this principle.”

The official 2022 federal pay raise will likely be decided in December at which time the Office of Personnel Management will publish the 2022 pay tables.

If approved, a new federal holiday would pay tribute to civil rights activist Rosa Parks.

Tennessee lawmaker proposes holiday to honor Rosa Parks

Congressman Jim Cooper (D-TN), along with Congressional Black Caucus Chair Rep. Joyce Beatty (D-OH) and Rep. Terri Sewell (D-AL), introduced last week the Rosa Parks Day Act (HR 5111). If passed, the bill would honor civil rights leader Rosa Parks by designating a new federal holiday.

In December 1955, Rosa Parks was arrested in Montgomery, Alabama, for refusing to give up her seat on a city bus to a white man and was charged with violating Montgomery’s segregation law. Congress honored her as “the first lady of civil rights” and “the mother of the freedom movement.”

The holiday would be on Dec. 1, according to a press release from Cooper, which is the date Parks was arrested. “Through her willingness to sit, Rosa Parks stood up for what she believed in,” Rep. Joyce Beatty said. “As a state legislator, I was proud to lead the push to make the Buckeye State the first state to officially recognize Rosa Parks Day. It’s now time for us to come together as a nation to honor this American hero through a new national holiday.”

On December 1, 1955, in Montgomery, Alabama, Rosa Parks sat so that this nation could stand up for the values that our democracy holds so dear,” said Rep. Sewell. “Her quiet, dignified courage helped inspire a civil rights movement that changed this country for the better. As the U.S. Representative for Montgomery, I’m so proud to introduce the Rosa Parks Day Act to make December 1st a national holiday in her honor. Such a day will ensure the memory of her brave sacrifice lives on in America’s story for generations to come.”

In the plan, the president is recommending a 2.2 percent across-the-board pay increase for federal employees in 2022, with an additional 0.5 percent locality pay adjustment. The total average pay increase would be 2.7 percent.

Depending on what location the employees work, some may receive a lower or higher figure based on the final locality pay rates. According to the letter, the pay "adjustment will take effect on the first day of the first applicable pay period beginning on or after Jan. 1, 2022."

Earlier this year, the White House proposed a 2.7 percent pay raise as part of the fiscal 2022 budget plan but it did not clarify how locality adjustments would be affected. The recommended 2022 pay increase is a lift from last year’s 1.0 percent across-the-board hike. 2021 locality pay adjustments were frozen at 2020 levels.

"We appreciate President Biden’s desire to give federal employees a pay raise in 2022, especially one that includes an increase in locality pay rates," the National Treasury Employees Union (NTEU) National said in a press statement. "This is a vast improvement over the previous administration’s attempt to freeze federal pay increases," NTEU said. "However, federal employee pay increases have lagged for years and there is still a very real gap between federal pay and comparable positions in the private sector. According to the Federal Salary Council, federal employees are paid 23.11 percent less than their private sector counterparts. NTEU believes that a 3.2 percent average raise is merited in 2022, as called for in the FAIR Act legislation introduced earlier this year. We will continue to urge Congress to implement an average 2.2 percent increase across the board, plus a one percent boost toward locality pay."

"President Biden’s alternative pay plan providing for a 2.7 percent pay increase in 2022 for federal employees is in line with his proposal earlier this year to provide a 2.7 percent pay adjustment for military personnel and civil service employees, also known as pay parity," said American Federation of Government Employees National President Everett Kelley. "Pay parity recognizes the essential contributions that civil service and uniformed personnel make to our country, and we are pleased that the Biden administration has honored this principle."

The official 2022 federal pay raise will likely be decided in December at which time the Office of Personnel management will publish the 2022 pay tables.

Executive Order 14004

Enabling All Qualified Americans to Serve Their Country in Uniform

Issued by: President Joseph R. Biden

Signed into Law: Jan. 25, 2021

In January of 2021, President Joseph R. Biden issued an executive order undoing the previous administrations ban on transgendered troops. Following the signature of that executive action, the Department of Defense undertook a two-month long review process to develop guidelines and policy for military members following that executive order. At the end of March 2021, DoD officials announced policy that allows transgender troops to serve using their "self-identified gender." Medically required transition care is authorized under the executive order.

House Resolution 303

Retired Pay Restoration Act

Sponsored by: Rep. Bilirakis, Gus M. Florida (R)

This bill allows the receipt of both military retired pay and veterans’ disability compensation with respect to any service-connected disability. Under current law, only individuals with service-connected disabilities rated at 50 percent or more receive both without offset. Individuals who were retired or separated after at least 20 years of military service due to a service-connected disability shall be eligible for the full concurrent receipt of both veterans’ disability compensation and either military retired pay or combat-related special pay.

01/13/2021: Referred to the Committee on Armed Services

01/31/2021: Referred to the Committee on Armed Services, and in addition to the Committee on Veterans’ Affairs, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned.

01/13/2021: Referred to the Committee on Armed Services, and in addition to the Committee on Veterans’ Affairs, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned.

03/08/2021: Referred to the Subcommittee on Disability Assistance and Memorial Affairs.

House Resolution 2918

Veterans Healthcare Freedom Act

Introduced: April 30, 2021

Sponsored by: Rep. Andy Biggs, Arizona (R)

This House Resolution proposes to require the Secretary of Veterans Affairs to "carry out a pilot program to improve the ability of veterans to access medical care in their local communities." If approved, this resolution would pay tribute to civil rights activist Rosa Parks.

Tennessee lawmaker proposes holiday to honor Rosa Parks

Congressman Jim Cooper (D-TN), along with Congressmen Black Caucus Chair Rep. Joyce Beatty (D-OH) and Rep. Terri Sewell (D-AL), introduced last week the Rosa Parks Day Act (HR 5111).

If passed, the bill would honor civil rights leader Rosa Parks by designating a new federal holiday.

In December 1955, Rosa Parks was arrested in Montgomery, Alabama, for refusing to give up her seat on a city bus to a white man and was charged with violating Montgomery’s segregation law. Congress honored her as "the first lady of civil rights" and "the mother of the freedom movement." The holiday would be on Dec. 1, according to a press release from Cooper, which is the date Parks was arrested.

"Through her willingness to sit, Rosa Parks stood up for what she believed in," Rep. Joyce Beatty said. "As a state legislator, I was proud to lead the push to make the Buckeye State the first state to officially recognize Rosa Parks Day. It’s now time for us to come together as a nation to honor this American hero through a new national holiday.

On December 1, 1955, in Montgomery, Alabama, Rosa Parks sat so that this nation could stand up for the values that our democracy holds so dear," said Rep. Sewell. "Her quiet, dignified courage helped inspire a civil rights movement that changed this country for the better. As the U.S. Representative for Montgomery, I’m so proud to introduce the Rosa Parks Day Act to make December 1st a national holiday in her honor. Such a day will ensure the memory of her brave sacrifice lives on in America’s story for generations to come."

If approved, a new federal holiday would pay tribute to civil rights activist Rosa Parks.

House Resolution 333

Disabled Veterans Tax Termination Act

Introduced: January 15, 2021

Sponsored By: Rep. Sanford Bishop Jr., Georgia (D)

This law would amend Title 10, United States Code, to permit concurrent receipt of both military retirement pay and VA compensation for service-connected medical issues for those who are VA rated as 50 percent or less service-connected disabled. The House Resolution would extend eligibility for "concurrent receipt to Chapter 61 disability retirees with less than 20 years of service" and other purposes. This bill is currently under review by the House Armed Services Committee and the House Committees on Veterans Affairs.

They now have free access to approximately 2,000 public locations spread out across more than 400 million acres of public lands, which host activities to fit any lifestyle, from serene to high octane, including hiking, fishing, paddling, biking, hunting, stargazing, camping, and much more.

Are you eligible?

For purposes of this program, a veteran is identified as an individual who has served in the United States Armed Forces, including the National Guard and Reserves, and is able to present one of the following forms of valid (unexpired) ID:

- Department of Defense Identification Card
- Veteran Health Identification Card (VHIC)
- Veteran ID Card

Veterans designation on a U.S. driver’s license or ID card

Gold Star Families are next of kin of a member of the United States Armed Forces who lost his or her life in a “qualifying situation,” such as a war, an international terrorist attack, or a military operation outside of the United States while serving with the United States Armed Forces.

America the Beautiful – the National Parks and Federal Recreational Lands Pass Program

The Interagency Pass Program already includes a free annual pass for active duty members of the U.S. Military and their dependents. Current Military Service-members must show a valid (unexpired) Department of Defense ID. Dependents of current Service-members must show a valid (unexpired) DD Form 1173 AD or DEC.

The annual Military Pass has been expanded to include veterans and Gold Star Family members. Other free or discounted passes, including some lifetime passes, are available for persons with permanent disabilities, fourth grade students, volunteers, and senior citizens age 62 years or older.

How to get your Interagency Pass

Visit Places to Get Interagency Passes for a searchable list and be sure to contact the site before you go, to make sure they are open and have passes in stock. In addition, Military passes, as well as those for seniors and persons with permanent disabilities, are available online through the USGS Online Store.

For more information about eligibility and passes, visit Free Entrance to National Parks for Veterans and Gold Star Families (nps.gov).

The participating agencies also offer several fee-free days for everyone throughout the year to mark days of celebration and commemoration. Examples of fee-free days include the birthday of Martin Luther King, Jr., National Public Lands Day, Veterans Day, and the signing of the Great American Outdoors Act.

Fee-free days and fee policies vary among the agencies, so it’s best to check the agency website or contact the site you plan to visit in advance of your trip.

Don’t get jabbed by vaccine scammers

by Colleen Tressler
Division of Consumer and Business Education, FTC

More than a year into the pandemic, and months after the first rollout of COVID-19 vaccines, people are eager to get back to their regular activities. But some activities might require you to show that you’ve been vaccinated or had a recent negative COVID-19 test. How you do that may depend on the activity and where you live.

Right now, there’s no standard way to prove you’ve been vaccinated or tested negative. Sure, there are those CDC COVID-19 vaccination cards people get when they get their vaccine. But they were never designed to prove your vaccination status and they may not be enough. Some states, companies, colleges, and other organizations are creating their own verification products and services, including apps and digital passports or certificates. Some connect to state immunization databases while other depend on individual self-report.

The patchwork approach gives scammers an opportunity to cash in on the confusion.

Besides not sharing your COVID-19 vaccination card online because of the risk for identity theft, here are a few other ways to help stay ahead of scammers.

Be skeptical of anyone contacting you from the federal government. Right now, there are no official plans to create a national vaccine verification app or certificate or passport. If you get a call, email, or text from someone saying they’re from the federal government, and asking you for personal information or money to get a national vaccine certificate or passport, that’s a scam.

Check with airlines, cruise lines, and event venues about their requirements.

Don’t share your information with just anyone. Scammers often set up real-looking websites to sell fake goods and services, so why not vaccine verification certificates or passports? Before you share any information online, check out who’s asking for it. Search online for the company or organization’s name with words like “scam,” “review,” or “complaint.” Think long and hard before you share personal information, like your Social Security, Medicare, credit card, or bank account numbers. Scammers can steal your information to commit fraud and identity theft.

Please share these tips with others, and stay connected to stay informed. Subscribe to consumer alerts from the FTC to get updates delivered right to your email inbox.

If you know about a COVID-19 vaccine scam, tell the FTC about it at ReportFraud.ftc.gov. Or, file a complaint to the FTC at ReportFraud.ftc.gov or your attorney general at ConsumerResources.org, or the FTC’s consumer hotline at 1-877-FTC-HELP (1-877-382-4357), or its website, Consumer.gov. You can also alert the FTC to fraud online by visiting the FTC’s website for tips on avoiding scams.

Whether you are assessing the damage from a hurricane, flooding, wildfires, or another natural disaster, coping with the aftermath is never easy. But when scammers target people just trying to recover, it can be even worse. Here are ways to help you avoid post-disaster scams:

Be skeptical of promises for immediate clean-up and debris removal. Some may quote outrageous prices, demand payment up-front, or lack the skills. Check them out. Before you pay, ask for IDs, licenses, and proof of insurance. Don’t believe any promises that aren’t in writing.

Never pay by wire transfer, gift card, cryptocurrency, or in cash. And never make the final payment until the work is done and you’re satisfied.

Here’s what to do if you get scammed:

Guard your personal information. Only scammers will say they’re a government official and then demand money or your credit card, bank account, or Social Security number.

PACIFIC OCEAN (Sept. 11, 2021) Sailors aboard the amphibious assault ship USS Tripoli (LHA 7) man the rails on the ship’s flight deck as the ship prepares to pull into San Francisco in support of San Francisco Fleet Week (SFFW), Sept. 11, 2021. SFFW is an opportunity for the American public to meet their Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard teams and experience America’s sea services. During fleet week, service members participate in various community service events, showcase capabilities and equipment to the community, and enjoy the hospitality of San Francisco and its surrounding areas.
