

Retention Influencers to Stay

2020 Personal and Professional Choices Survey

Most Frequently Influences to Stay in the Navy

- Most frequently cited influences to stay in the Navy for both men and women included job security, retirement and healthcare benefits
- Participants who are unsure about future career plans were most likely to cite job security, benefits and salary as influences
- Participants without children were most likely to cite healthcare, salary and the opportunity to travel as influences to stay

Job security & benefits were most frequently cited influences to stay in the Navy